This volume is a collection of words in honor of our colleague teacher and friend Yordan Kosturkov It is but a feeble attempt to lock within book covers not unlike the bare walls of an unfurnished room the rich and multifaceted world the writer poet scholar translator intellectual and human being Kosturkov has been building for many decades brick by brick stone by stone The first part in this collection revolves around the idea of the rational and disciplined knowledge in constructing Arguments The second and somewhat unruly part strives to capture the elusive and the emotional as well as the mis remembered in our Affinities The third gives our readers the record of the archeologist who has embarked on an excavation in the Archives It is in the dynamics between these three parts that the editors have tried to approximate the sense of the world created and inhabited by Yordan Kosturkov if we threw all furniture out the window      Encyclopedia of German Literature Matthias

Cambridge Companion to Thomas Mann Ritchie Robertson,2002 Specially commissioned essays explore key dimensions of Thomas Mann s writing and life      Final Drafts Mark Seinfelt,1999-12 Some of the greatest writers in the history of the art Hart Crane Ernest Hemingway Jerzy Kosinski Sylvia Plath Anne Sexton and Virginia Woolf all chose to silence themselves by suicide leaving their families and friends with heartbreak and the world of literature with gaping holes Their reasons for killing themselves when known were varied and quite often unreasonable Some were plagued by depression or self doubt and others by frustration and helplessness in a world they could neither change nor tolerate Profoundly moving and morbidly attractive Final Drafts is a necessary historical record biographical treatment and psychological examination of the authors who left this cruel world by their own hands either instantly or over long periods of relentless self destructive behavior It is also a devoted examination of references to suicide in literature both by those who took their own lives and those who decided to live Mark Seinfelt has selected many well known mostly fiction writers from those whose work dates to over a century ago when the medical community was ill equipped to deal with substance abuse and depression to more recent writers such as Kosinski Michael Dorris and Eugene Izzi who have left a puzzled literary community with a sad legacy Seinfelt reveals that many authors contemplated ending their lives in their work were obsessed with destroying themselves were unable in the case of the Holocaust to live with the fact that their contemporaries had been killed believed death to be a freedom from the horrors that forced them to create and sometimes were simply unable to withstand rejection or criticism of their work Other noted authors discussed in this volume include John Berryman Ambrose Bierce Harry Crosby John Davidson William Inge Randall Jarrell Arthur Koestler T E Lawrence Primo Levi Jack London Jay Anthony Lukas Tom McHale Yukio Mishima Henry de Montherlant Seth Morgan George Sterling Sara Teasdale Ernst Toller John Kennedy Toole Sergey Yesenin and many others

Baker, 2016-12-22 What should literature with political aims look like This book traces two rival responses to this question one prizing clarity and the other confusion which have dominated political aesthetics since the late nineteenth century Revisiting recurrences of the avant garde experimentalism versus critical realism debates from the twentieth century Geoffrey A Baker highlights the often violent reductions at work in earlier debates Instead of prizing one approach over the other as many participants in those debates have done Baker focuses on the manner in which the debate itself between these approaches continues to prove productive and enabling for politically engaged writers This book thus offers a way beyond the simplistic polarity of realism vs anti realism in a study that is focused on influential strands of thought in England France and Germany and that covers well known authors such as Zola Nietzsche Arnold Mann Brecht Sartre Adorno Luk cs Beauvoir Morrison and Coetzee     Humanly Possible Sarah Bakewell, 2023-03-28 THE NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER One of Barack Obama s Favorite Books of 2023 A New York Times Notable Book The bestselling author of How to Live and At the Existentialist Caf explores seven hundred years of writers thinkers scientists and artists all seeking to understand what it means to be truly human A book of big and bold ideas Humanly Possible is humane in approach and more important readable and worth reading Bakewell is wide ranging witty and compassionate Wall Street Journal Sweeping linking philosophical reflections with vibrant anecdotes The New York Times If you are reading this it s likely you already have some affinity with humanism even if you don t think of yourself in those terms You may be drawn to literature and the humanities You may prefer to base your moral choices on fellow feeling and responsibility to others rather than on religious commandments Or you may simply believe that individual lives are more important than grand political visions or dogmas If any of these apply you are part of a long tradition of humanist thought and you share that tradition with many extraordinary individuals through history who have put rational enquiry cultural richness freedom of thought and a sense of hope at the heart of their lives Humanly Possible introduces us to some of these people as it asks what humanism is and why it has flourished for so long despite opposition from fanatics mystics and tyrants It is a book brimming with ideas personalities and experiments in living from the literary enthusiasts of the fourteenth century to the secular campaigners of our own time from Erasmus to Esperanto from anatomists to agnostics from Christine de Pizan to Bertrand Russell and from Voltaire to Zora Neale Hurston It takes us on an irresistible journey and joyfully celebrates open mindedness optimism freedom and the power of the here and now humanist values which have helped steer us through dark times in the past and which are just as urgently needed in our world today The bestselling prizewinning author of How to Live and At the Existentialist Caf explores 700 years of writers thinkers scientists and artists all trying to understand what it means to be truly human     Masters of Two Arts
