Slaughterhouse Five Or The Childrens Crusade A Duty Dance With Death By:

Nihilism and the Sublime Postmodern William Slocombe, 2013-11-05 This book examines the relationship between nihilism and postmodernism in relation to the sublime and is divided into three parts history theory and praxis Arguing against the simplistic division in literary criticism between nihilism and the sublime the book demonstrates that both are clearly implicated with the Enlightenment Postmodernism as a product of the Enlightenment is therefore implicitly related to both nihilism and the sublime despite the fact that it is often characterised as either nihilistic or sublime Whereas prior forms of nihilism are modernist because they seek to codify reality postmodernism creates a new formulation of nihilism postmodern nihilism that is itself sublime This is explored in relation to a broad survey of postmodern literature in two chapters the first on aesthetics and the second on ethics It offers a coherent thesis for reappraising the relationship between nihilism and the sublime and grounds this argument with frequent references to postmodern literature making it a book suitable for both researchers and those more generally interested in postmodern literature

Rethinking Invasion Ecologies from the Environmental Humanities Jodi Frawley, Iain McCalman, 2014-02-24 Research from a humanist perspective has much to offer in interrogating the social and cultural ramifications of invasion ecologies The impossibility of securing national boundaries against accidental transfer and the unpredictable climatic changes of our time have introduced new dimensions and hazards to this old issue Written by a team of international scholars this book allows us to rethink the impact on national regional or local ecologies of the deliberate or accidental introduction of foreign species plant and animal Modern environmental approaches that treat nature with na ve realism or mobilize it as a moral absolute unaware or unwilling to accept that it is informed by specific cultural and temporal values are doomed to fail Instead this book shows that we need to understand the complex interactions of ecologies and societies in the past present and future over the Anthropocene in order to address problems of the global environmental crisis It demonstrates how humanistic methods and disciplines can be used to bring fresh clarity and perspective on this long vexed aspect of environmental thought and practice Students and researchers in environmental studies invasion ecology conservation biology environmental ethics environmental history and environmental policy will welcome this major contribution to environmental humanities

Teaching Contemporary American Life and Literature in the German Advanced EFL-classroom Peter Freese, 1985 A short research paper on Kurt Vonnegut's "Slaughterhouse Five" David Federhen, 2003-04-26 Seminar paper from the year 2002 in the subject American Studies Literature grade A deutsch 1 International University in Germany Bruchsal Department of Sciences and Liberal Arts language English abstract Introduction Kurt Vonnegut Jr is considered one of the greatest American authors ever He wrote about 30 novels an uncounted number of short stories and a few essays and plays His most successful novel Slaughterhouse Five or The Childrens Crusade a Duty Dance with Death was his sixth book and published in 1969 This research paper will focus on the connection between Billy Pilgrim the main character of

Slaughterhouse Five and the life of Kurt Vonnegut Furthermore it will make use of this connection in order to suggest why Kurt Vonnegut wrote this book Pilgrim who is an American World War II veteran and survived the allied air raid on Dresden in early 1945 strikes the reader as a very eccentric person He believes that he has come unstuck in time Vonnegut 1991 p 23 and time travels to his childhood to his wedding to the Battle of the Bulge and to the air raid But not only that he has lost control over the temporal aspects of his life he furthermore believes that he has been kidnapped by aliens from the planet Tralfamadore and taken to their world as an exhibit in a terrarium In order to point out the close relationship between the author and the main character I will subdivide this paper into several sections shortly giving information about the author s biography and providing a quick summary of Slaughterhouse Five This information has to be considered and related in order to understand Vonnegut s motivation for writing this novel It is vital to realize that Pilgrim is Vonnegut and that whatever Pilgrim feels is what Vonnegut experienced in his life
