Sleeping Giant An Illustrated History Of Southern Californias Inland Empire:

Sleeping Giant Rob Leicester Wagner, 2004 Sleeping Giant is a thoughtful and robust narrative of the inland region of Southern California's transition from a wild desert wilderness held together by nothing much more than Indians sagebrush and adobes to the vibrant economic and industrial engine that it is today Its pages contain a reservoir of stories of the early years and include more than a history of the waning days of the Wild West It traces the monumental transformation of the area in its passage through times of pioneer settlement the dawn of an agrarian age development of railroads and industry as well as the founding of villages that would become pulsating communities bulging with a population of millions Lavishly illustrated with vintage photographs Sleeping Giant heralds an ever promising future for the people of the Inland Empire

Imperial William T. Vollmann, 2009-07-30 From the author of Europe Central winner of the National Book Award a journalistic tour de force along the Mexican American border a finalist for the National Book Critics Circle Award For generations of migrant workers Imperial Country has held the promise of paradise and the reality of hell It sprawls across a stirring accidental sea across the deserts date groves and labor camps of Southeastern California right across the border into Mexico In this eye opening book William T Vollmann takes us deep into the heart of this haunted region exploring polluted rivers and guarded factories and talking with everyone from Mexican migrant workers to border patrolmen Teeming with patterns facts stories people and hope this is an epic study of an emblematic region Journalism Across Boundaries K. Grieves, 2012-11-28 Journalistic activity crosses national borders in creative and sometimes unexpected ways Drawing on many interviews and newsroom observation this book addresses an overlooked but important aspect of international journalism by examining how journalists carry out their daily work at the transnational and regional transborder level

Excerpt from Legends of Southern California My California There s a land that I know where the oranges grow And roses climb over my own bungalow The heliotrope curtains my windows with bloom And fills every corner with sweetest perfume The pepper trees sway with red berries gay And tall eucalyptus trees border the way The scent of the sage brush is keen in the air And poppies and lupins are seen everywhere There the soft balmy breeze has the tang of the seas And Nature is trying her hardest to please With desert and garden and mountain and shore Ah never were beauties so clustered before There s a land that I know where the oranges grow And roses climb over my own bungalow And there I wilt live in the glorious West In my dear California Land of the Blest About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
