The Nearest In Affection Towards A Christian Understanding Of Islam:

The Nearest in Affection Stuart E. Brown, 1995 He Nearest in Affection to those who believe according to the Quran are the ones who say We are Christians Yet in many parts of the world where Christians and Muslims live side by side the reality of their relationship falls far short of that ideal Suspensions and fears arise from ignorance of each other's history beliefs and practices often leading to tensions and open conflict This short introduction to Islam for Christians offers a wide ranging overview of what Muslims believe and where their beliefs and practices reveal points of contact or divergence with Christianity It thus provides both an agenda and a solid foundation for strengthened and respectful encounters between members of the world's two largest faith groups American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 14:1 Abdelwahab M. Elmessiri, Mohammad Mumtaz Ali, Javaid Iqbal, Omar H. Khaleefa, M.M. Mahroof, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Understanding Islam Chris Hewer, 2014-07-28 This book is designed to take people on the first steps in understanding Islam and the way that Muslims think and see the world It grows out of extensive experience of teaching the course on which it is based Routledge Revivals: The Challenge of Islam (2005) Douglas Pratt, 2016-10-04 First published in 2005 this book addresses the challenges arising from Christian Muslim encounter and attempts to enable outsiders to understand the religion of Islam The author offers distinctive perspectives that compliment much other literature in the study of Islam and in particular Christian Muslim relations and the relation of Islam and the west The book is divided into three parts Part I constitutes an introduction to Islam Part II delves into aspects of the wider encounter with Islam and Part III explores issues in regard to the prospect of engaging in dialogue with Islam The author argues that in the post 9 11 world the imperative to understand and engage with Islam is urgent and intends this work to assist the reader in doing so Christian-Muslim Dialogue in the Twentieth Century A. Siddiqui, 1997-02-19 The book describes the challenge of modernity faced by Muslims and Christians and the issue of religious pluralism It describes Muslims encounters with Christianity in the first half of this century and their participation in organised dialogues initiated by the Churches in the second half It highlights their apprehensions and expectations in dialogue and issues of co existence in the world today The book focuses on six prominent Muslim personalities who represent a wide spectrum of Muslim opinion and three international organizations and their attitude towards dialogue A Protestant Theology of Religious Pluralism Livingstone Thompson, 2009 In this book three main things have been accomplished First it locates the emergence of religious pluralism as a problem for Christian theology Secondly it shows the critical weaknesses in the approaches to pluralism that we find in the works of Gavin D Costa George Lindbeck and John Hick all major players in the field of religious pluralism Retrieving theological material from seventeenth century Comenius and eighteenth century Zinzendorf the book shows that the Protestant tradition has suitable theological material that can better serve the development of a theology of religious pluralism Thirdly the book enters into dialogue with Islam and highlights exciting new approaches to addressing the issues of salvation the Qur'an and Christology One critical outcome of the book is that it breaks new ground in showing the limitations of liberation theology and proposes a fascinating new pluralism sensitive hermeneutical approach to contextual theology A Wideness in God's Mercy Clark H. Pinnock, 1992 Offers new possibilities of interpretation for religious pluralism Covers topics like God's global reach in salvation a Christology of Grace and how Scripture views other religions

Why the Gospel of Thomas Matters Gethin Abraham-Williams, 2015-07-31 By setting selected sayings from the Gospel of Thomas alongside the disciple's own words from the Fourth Gospel this book challenges the myth of doubting Thomas arguing that uncertainty is an essential element of any authentic faith experience In an age of increasing anti-Semitism and religious intolerance it also affirms the importance of the Gospel of Thomas in recovering the essential Jewishness of Jesus Far from undermining the Christian tradition of the Church and its canonical scriptures this book shows how the Gospel of Thomas complements both inviting the reader to reconsider the healthy significance of the Apostle of the Enquiring Mind

Sharing Lights on the Way to God Pim Valkenberg, 2006 This book seeks to give form to a theology that hyphenates two traditions that have not only been in constant conflict during most of their historical encounters but are also presented as opposite blocks in the threatening clash of civilizations at the beginning of the third millennium Islam and Christianity Based on experiences of dialogue between the three Abrahamic faiths this book analyzes historical and contemporary processes of interreligious dialogue between Christians and Muslims in order to arrive at a concept of dialogue as mutual emulation It shows how in their theologies of religious others Judaism Christianity and Islam have based their images of others on their self images This characteristic makes traditional theologies of religion quite unsuitable for interreligious dialogue Consequently the author of this book develops a model in which comparative theology and interreligious dialogue are connected by studying as a Christian theologian the theological and spiritual sources of his Muslim partners These exercises in comparative Muslim-Christian theology comprise both the medieval Aquinas al-Ghazali Rumi and the modern periods Said Nursi Fethullah Gulen Tariq Ramadan An interlude on Teresa of Avila's poem Nada te turbe shows how Christians may recover important insights from their own tradition by reading these Muslim theological and spiritual sources BOOK JACKET

The Life and Impact of Phil Parshall Kenneth Nehrbass, Mark Williams, 2021-06-15 Missions Begins with Love Being a witness for Jesus in Muslim contexts is often difficult complicated and even discouraging Over the past forty years Phil Parshall a leading authority on Muslim outreach has demonstrated that making friends with Muslims whether in the West or abroad is where our witness usually begins Brother Phil and his wife Julie were missionaries in Bangladesh for more than twenty years and later worked among Muslims in the Philippines During his tenure as a missionary leader Parshall authored a dozen books that helped shape current missiological perspectives about Muslim outreach In this volume the only edited work dedicated to exploring Phil Parshall s legacy seven respected missiologists interact with those ideas While all the contributors to this book have been inspired by Parshall s life and work some of them believe that Parshall s methods of contextualization could have been taken even further They ponder How can we further remove obstacles to following Jesus How do we navigate the fine lines between Muslim cultures and Muslim religious ideas What cultural and social aspects of Muslim life could cross cultural workers adopt when living among Muslims Here they share some of their victories and challenges encouraging Christian workers to press ahead on paths of outreach to Muslims that are fitting for the twenty first century context
