How Christian Are You? Richard J. Hart, OFM Cap, 2009 Challenges individuals to find out if they are living the Christian life as fully as possible and how this can be accomplished

Space and Time David C. Wright, Jr., Allan W. Austin, 2010-04-19 Essays in this work examine treatments of history in science fiction and fantasy television programs from a variety of disciplinary and methodological perspectives Some essays approach science fiction and fantasy television as primary evidence demonstrating how such programs consciously or unconsciously elucidate persistent concerns and enduring ideals of a past era and place Other essays study television as secondary evidence investigating how popular media construct and communicate narratives about past events

Spaceships and Politics Leslie Dale Feldman, 2010-01-01 Spaceships and Politics The Political Theory of Rod Serling examines the political themes in The Twilight Zone In this unique show Rod Serling used fantasy and the supernatural to explore political ideas such as capital punishment the individual and the state war conformity the state of nature prejudice and alienation He used aliens and machines to understand human nature While the themes in The Twilight Zone often reflected political concerns of the time like the Cold War and post industrial technology the messages had broader political implications This book looks at Serling's mechanistic view of the world and emphasis on fear through Hobbesian themes like diffidence and automata
