Telling Stories, 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research The

Lopoukhine,Frédéric Regard,Kerry-Jane Wallart,2023-05-29 Jean Rhys position upon the literary map of the 20th century remains unstable even after Wide Sargasso Sea 1966 She shunned public exposure and yet desperately sought acknowledgement by her own peers she stood away from the modernist circles of Montparnasse in Paris and yet explored a radically avant garde writing which retrospectively makes her rank among them while her always problematic authority places her in the marginalized position of the postcolonial author Writing precariously in the case of Jean Rhys reaches far beyond a mere posture of submission or a necessity to cope with a lack of money or a room of one's own Rather it becomes an ethical and political stance that engages with forms of minimal resistance to forms of subjection just as the very precariousness of her writing thwarts any efforts to place her or her work to frame her characters or label her style With Jean Rhys precariousness is the site where voices silenced and bodies dismissed by a gendered or imperialistic power may be retrieved until their vulnerability becomes a dislodging force that makes the power structures precarious in turn This book reassesses the precariousness of Jean Rhys as a distinct positionality eliciting an isolated voice which insists and persists It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Women A Cultural Review Sleep it Off, Lady; Short Stories Jean Rhys,1976 The Collected Short Stories Jean Rhys,1992 Jean Rhys was one of the twentieth century's foremost writers a literary artist who made exquisite use of the raw material of her own often turbulent life to create fiction of memorable resonance and poignancy Here for the first time in one volume are her complete stories The Drinking Woman's Diet: A Liver-Friendly Lifestyle Guide Wendy Narby,2018-06-25 Do you love your wine but worry about your health and weight This book is crammed full of ideas advice from specialists and tried and tested recommendations to help maintain your health without giving up your love of wine and fine food The book addresses these serious issues in a light hearted way through a lens of living in France and with a nod to how French Women do it This is not so much a simple diet book as a fascinating lifestyle guide Two Sierra Edward Stuart,2005-11 The words of the Dean of Students echoed in his mind like a message of doom Well Mr Brady I'm sorry to have to tell you this but you still didn't make it At first there had been that brief moment of shocked disbelief Surely he had thought he's not really saying this But then the awesome finality of the pronouncement hit him He had botched his second and final attempt to score high enough on the English comprehensive exams to graduate The realization that he would now never get his degree from Princeton stunned him It was as if he had been dealt a vicious physical blow How was he going to face the embarrassment and the shame of forever having to explain how he had completed four years in this place and had nothing to show for it But more immediately and far more distressing what was going to happen when he told his father The news could lead to another stroke Walter had never felt so devastated and alone Pummeled by even further misfortune and tragedy Walter in a make or break attempt to get his life back on track takes an extraordinary gamble he embarks on the long and daunting quest to become a naval aviator

Godey's Lady's Book ,1876 Jean Rhys, Bibliography Fred Rue Jacobs,1978 Aging Studies and Ecocriticism Nassim W. Balestrini,Julia Hoydis,Anna-Christina Kainradl,Ulla Kribernegg,2023-08-15 Aging Studies and Ecocriticism Interdisciplinary Encounters argues that both aging studies and ecocriticism address the complex dynamics of individual and collective agency oppression and dependency care and conviviality vulnerability and resistance as well as intergenerationality and responsibility Yet even though both fields employ overlapping methodologies and theoretical frameworks and scrutinize boundary texts in different literary genres which have been analyzed from ecocritical perspectives as well as from the vantage point of critical aging studies there has been little scholarly interaction between ecocritical literary studies and aging studies to date The contributors in this volume demonstrate the potential of specific genres to narrate relationality and age and the aesthetic and ethical challenges of imagining changes endings and survival in the Anthropocene As the first step towards putting both fields in conversation this collection offers new pathways into understanding human and nonhuman ecological relations
