I'm 30 Now What: A Woman's Guide To Living A Life Of Choice Ky-Lee Hanson,2017-11-02 I m 30 Now What is a discovery through the perception of women born between 1977 1987 At the time of writing this book we are in our thirties There is something about our generation that never quite fit in a traditional sense Our authors are from or have lived in Canada USA Turkey Germany Barcelona and Europe yet there is a common feeling of displacement across the globe within our lost generation We were the first generation to have vast choices around education career and our role in the household We were able to stumble off the traditional path and survive We were raised in a very transitional phase from single to dual income households and grew up during the rise of broken homes We saw war for its true colors an industry and not an act of freedom the creation of the internet and watching it burst followed by an economic banking and housing crash We also saw positive change rapid gentrification spirituality equal rights gay rights and same sex marriage the everyday feminist and females running the workplace male nurses stay at home dads and moms to mompreneurs to childless women by choice finding commonalities outside of mommyhood As adults we view diversity and open mindedness as our way of life We didn t start all these trends but we are the outcome We were born to be a generation of change a generation of options Maybe instead of being the lost generation we were the born Choice Makers Yet we don t fully own this We CAN choose a life outside of a cookie cutter mold and we have the right to be unapologetic when doing so This book is a heavy controversial eye opener while being a tool for healing growth owning your power and embracing choice

Global Perspectives on Victimization Analysis and Prevention Ayodele, Johnson Oluwale, 2019-11-29. Over the past two decades, both developed and developing countries have experienced major individual and collective tragic victimizations leading to major structural and systemic transformations as a consequence of the influence of organized crime and international terrorism. These trends, many of which, as noted earlier, are global in spread and have catastrophic outcomes, revolve around some categories of political diplomacy and unsatisfactory reform responses to spiraling discontent among motivated youths. Global Perspectives on Victimization Analysis and Prevention is an essential research book that provides comprehensive research on postmodern crime prevention and control strategies as well as potential transformations that could be seen in victimology. It offers resources to understand and analyze the main issues, relevant framework, and contextual intricacies within which public safety agendas are articulated and implemented across the globe. Highlighting a wide range of topics such as public safety, crime prevention, and terrorism, this book is essential for criminologists, law enforcement, victim advocates, criminal profilers, crime analysts, academicians, policymakers, researchers, security planners, NGOs, government officials, and students.

Family Violence From a Global Perspective Sylvia M. Asay, John DeFrain, Marcee Metzger, Bob Moyer, 2013-06-17. This one-of-a-kind edited collection draws on the expertise of authors from 16 countries representing 17 cultures to tell the story of domestic violence in their respective parts of the world. The book incorporates a strengths-based approach, including individual, relationship, community, and societal strengths. The collection draws on multiple perspectives: academics, counselors, organizers, activists, and victims, to determine strengths and analyze how they can translate into greater safety for victims, increased accountability of perpetrators, and improved policy formation and research. Each chapter focuses on the lived experiences of victims of intimate partner violence, child abuse, or elder abuse and includes information about the abuser, the family, the community, and the culture.

Essays into Vietnamese Pasts K. W. Taylor, John K. Whitmore, 2018-05-31. Essays that demonstrate ways to read the pasts of Vietnam through detailed analyses of its art, chronicles, legends, documents, and monuments. The book's many voices undermine the idea of a single Vietnamese past. All the essays, while varied, are connected by their common concerns with language and text.

"Women, Workers, and Race in LIFE Magazine" Dolores Flamiano, 2017-07-05. The tension between social reform photography and photojournalism is examined through this study of the life and work of German photographer G. S. Mieth, 1909-1998, who made an unlikely journey from migrant farm worker to LIFE photographer. She was the second woman in that role after Margaret Bourke-White. Unlike her colleagues, Mieth was a working-class reformer with a deep disdain for LIFE's conservatism and commercialism. In fact, her work often subverted LIFE's typical representations of women workers and minorities. Some of her most compelling photo essays used skillful visual storytelling to offer fresh views on controversial topics: birth control, vivisection, labor unions, and

Japanese American internment during the Second World War Her dual role as reformer and photojournalist made her a desirable commodity at Life in the late 1930s and early 40s but this role became untenable in Cold War America when her career was cut short Today Mieth's life and photographs stand as compelling reminders of the vital yet overlooked role of immigrant women in twentieth century photojournalism Women Workers and Race in LIFE Magazine draws upon a rich array of primary sources including Mieth's unpublished memoir oral histories and labor archives The book seeks to unravel and understand the multi layered often contested stories of the photographer's life and work It will be of interest to scholars of photography history women's studies visual culture and media history
