The National Purpose Reconsidered:

The National Purpose Reconsidered, 1978 Reconsidering Constitutional Formation I National Sovereignty Ulrike Müßig, 2016-08-18 This open access book can be downloaded from link springer.com Legal studies and consequently legal history focus on constitutional documents believing in a nominalist autonomy of constitutional semantics Reconsidering Constitutional Formation in the late 18th and 19th century kept historic constitutions from being simply log books for political experts through a functional approach to the interdependencies between constitution and public discourse Sovereignty had to be believed by the subjects and the political elites Such a communicative orientation of constitutional processes became palpable in the religious affinities of the constitutional preambles They were held as creeds of a new order not only due to their occasional recourse to divine authority but rather due to the claim for eternal validity contexts of constitutional guarantees The communication dependency of constitutions was of less concern in terms of the preamble than the constituents big worries about government organisation Their indecisiveness between monarchical and popular sovereignty was established through the discrediting of the Republic in the Jacobean reign of terror and the renaissance of the monarchy in the military resistance against the French revolutionary and later Napoleonic campaigns The constitutional formation as a legal act of constituting could therefore defend the monarchy from the threat of the people Albertine Statute 1848 could be a legal decision of a national constituent assembly Belgian Constitution 1831 could borrow from the old liberties Polish May Constitution 1791 or try to remain in between by referring to the Nation as sovereign French September Constitution 1791 C diz Constitution 1812 Common to all contexts is the use of national sovereignty as a legal starting point The consequent differentiation between constituent and constituted power manages to justify the self commitment of political power in legal terms National sovereignty is the synonym for the juridification of sovereignty by means of the constitution The novelty of the constitutions of the late 18th and 19th century is the normativity the positivity of the constitutional law as one unified law to be the measure for the legality of all other law Therefore ReConFort will continue with the precedence of constitution www.reconfort.eu Reconsidering Roosevelt on Race Kevin J. McMahon, 2010-02-15 Many have questioned FDR's record on race suggesting that he had the opportunity but not the will to advance the civil rights of African Americans Kevin J McMahon challenges this view arguing instead that Roosevelt's administration played a crucial role in the Supreme Court's increasing commitment to racial equality which culminated in its landmark decision in Brown v Board of Education McMahon shows how FDR's attempt to strengthen the presidency and undermine the power of conservative Southern Democrats dovetailed with his efforts to seek racial equality through the federal courts By appointing a majority of rights based liberals deferential to presidential power Roosevelt ensured that the Supreme Court would be receptive to civil rights claims especially when those claims had the support of the executive branch Reconsidering Children's Early Development and Learning United States. National Education Goals Panel. Goal 1 Technical Planning Group, Sharon Lynn Kagan, Evelyn

Moore, Sue Bredekamp, 1995 In 1990 the National Education Goals were established by the President and the 50 state governors Great attention has been given to Goal 1 dubbed the readiness goal By the year 2000 all children in America will start school ready to learn The Goal 1 Resource Technical Planning Groups were asked to suggest ways in which Goal 1 could be measured The purpose of this document is to further amplify the dimensions of early learning and development used by the National Educational Goals Panel to measure progress toward Goal 1 The following five dimensions are discussed 1 Physical Well Being and Motor Development 2 Social and Emotional Development serving as the foundation for relationships which give meaning to school experience 3 Approaches toward Learning referring to the inclinations dispositions or styles that reflect ways children become involved with learning 4 Language Development and 5 Cognition and General Knowledge For each of the dimensions a rationale general definition the relationship to individual cultural and contextual variation and a summary are given The report concludes with a discussion of underlying issues implications and action steps Contains 83 references BGC

Reconsidering American Power John D. Kelly, Kurt Jacobsen, Marston H. Morgan, 2019-12-05 Postcolonial studies postmodern studies even posthuman studies emerge and intellectuals demand that social sciences be remade to address fundamentals of the human condition from human rights to global environmental crises Since these fields owe so much to American state sponsorship is it easier to reimagine the human and the modern than to properly measure the pervasive American influence Reconsidering American Power offers trenchant studies by renowned scholars who reassess the role of the social sciences in the construction and upkeep of the Pax Americana and the influence of Pax Americana on the social sciences With the thematic image for this enterprise as the fiery hunt for Ahab's whale the contributors pursue realities behind the theories and reconsider the real origins and motives of their fields with an eye on what will deter or repurpose the fiery hunts to come by offering a critical insider's view *Proceedings of the ...
