Portier, 2017-11-17 Born in Boston of immigrant parents Thomas A Judge CM 1868 1933 preached up and down the east coast on the Vincentian mission band between 1903 and 1915 Disturbed by the leakage of the immigrant poor from the church he enlisted and organized lay women he met on the missions to work for the preservation of the faith his watchword His work grew apace with and in some ways anticipated the growing body of papal teaching on the lay apostolate When he became superior of the godforsaken Vincentian Alabama mission in 1915 he invited the lay apostles to come south to help This is the layman's hour he wrote in 1919 By then however many of his lay apostles had evolved in the direction of vowed communal life This pioneer of the lay apostle founded two religious communities one of women and one of men With the indispensable help of his co founder Mother Boniface Keasey he spent the last decade of his life trying to gain canonical approval for these groups organizing them and helping them learn to train the work a day man and woman into an apostle to cause each to be alert to the interests of the Church to be the Church The roaring twenties saw the work expanded beyond the Alabama missions as far as Puerto Rico which Judge viewed as a gateway to Latin America The Great Depression ended this expansive mood and time and put agonizing pressure on Judge his disciples and their work In 1932 the year before Judge's death the apostolic delegate upon being appraised of Judge's financial straits described his work as the only organized movement of its kind in the Church today that so completely meets the wishes of the Holy Father with reference to the Lay Apostolate Religion, Religious Ethics and Nursing Marsha Fowler, Sheryl Reimer Kirkham, Rick Sawatzky, Elizabeth Johnston Taylor, 2011-11-14 This is a book that challenges you to step back and broaden your thinking about religion in

Key Features Offers in depth analysis of how religion influences the discipline of nursing its practitioners and treatment outcomes Uses critical theories to explore the intersections of religion ethics culture health gender power and health policy Includes an overview of all major world religions Focuses on the implications of religion for nursing practice rather than nursing interventions Designed for graduate and upper level undergraduate students nurse academicians and clinicians
