Machine Art in the Twentieth Century Andreas Broeckmann, 2016-12-16 An investigation of artists engagement with technical systems tracing art historical lineages that connect works of different periods Machine art is neither a movement nor a genre but encompasses diverse ways in which artists engage with technical systems In this book Andreas Broeckmann examines a variety of twentieth and early twenty first century artworks that articulate people s relationships with machines In the course of his investigation Broeckmann traces historical lineages that connect art of different periods looking for continuities that link works from the end of the century to developments in the 1950s and 1960s and to works by avant garde artists in the 1910s and 1920s An art historical perspective he argues might change our views of recent works that seem to be driven by new media technologies but that in fact continue a century old artistic exploration Broeckmann investigates critical aspects of machine aesthetics that characterized machine art until the 1960s and then turns to specific domains of artistic engagement with technology algorithms and machine autonomy looking in particular at the work of the Canadian artist David Rokeby vision and image and the advent of technical imaging and the human body using the work of the Australian artist Stelarc as an entry point to art that couples the machine to the body mechanically or cybernetically Finally Broeckmann argues that systems thinking and ecology have brought about a fundamental shift in the meaning of technology which has brought with it a rethinking of human subjectivity He examines a range of artworks including those by the Japanese artist Seiko Mikami whose work exemplifies the shift

Empire De/Centered Maxim Waldstein,Sanna

Turoma,2016-05-06 In 1991 the Soviet empire collapsed at a stroke throwing the certainties of the Cold War world into flux Yet despite the dramatic end of this last empire the idea of empire is still alive and well its language and concepts feeding into public debate and academic research Bringing together a multidisciplinary and international group of authors to study Soviet society and culture through the categories empire and space this collection demonstrates the enduring legacy of empire with regard to Russia whose history has been marked by a particularly close and ambiguous relationship between nation and empire building and between national and imperial identities Parallel with this discussion of empire the volume also highlights the centrality of geographical space and spatial imaginings in Russian and Soviet intellectual traditions and social practices underlining how Russia s vast geographical dimensions have profoundly informed Russia s state and nation building both in practice and concept Combining concepts of space and empire the collection offers a reconsideration of Soviet imperial legacy by studying its cultural and societal underpinnings from previously unexplored perspectives In so doing it provides a reconceptualization of the theoretical and methodological foundations of contemporary imperial and spatial studies through the example of the experience provided by Soviet society and culture

A Comet of the Enlightenment Johan C.-E. Stén,2014-05-22 The Finnish mathematician and astronomer Anders Johan Lexell 1740 1784 was a long time close collaborator as well as the academic successor of Leonhard Euler at the Imperial Academy of Sciences in Saint Petersburg Lexell was initially invited by Euler from his native town of Abo Turku in Finland to Saint Petersburg to assist in the mathematical processing of the astronomical data of the forthcoming transit of Venus of 1769 A few years later he became an ordinary member of the Academy This is the first ever full length biography devoted to Lexell and his prolific scientific output His rich correspondence especially from his grand tour to Germany France and England reveals him as a lucid observer of the intellectual landscape of enlightened Europe In the skies a comet a minor planet and a crater on the Moon named after Lexell also perpetuate his memory Translation and Multimodality Monica Boria, Angeles

[Un]Likely Alliance Bernd Herzogenrath, 2009-05-05 This volume presents an original and in depth study devoted to the discussion and relevance of the notion of the environment and ecology within the frame work and ontology of the philosophy of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari Their non dualist and materialist re thinking of these issues is analyzed from various positions within Cultural Studies and the Sciences Thinking Environment s with Deleuze Guattari is thus far removed from what might be termed intellectual tree hugging it is a call to think complexity and to complex thinking a way to think the environment and environments as negotiations of human and nonhuman dynamics Such a thinking by default carefully evades Cartesian dualisms such as nature versus culture biology versus technology or natural versus artificial At a time when the distinctions as well as the transitions between nature and culture are getting more and more fluid Deleuze Guattari s alliance with environmental thinking turns out to be a rather fruitful exciting and likely one one that allows for a single mode of articulating environmental evolutionary and technological registers and relations and for the conceptualization of a general non anthropocentric ecoscience This book thus aims at a radical re thinking of these concepts from a Deleuzian Guattarian i e non dualist and materialist perspective 2001 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2011-08-02 Annually published since fortunes of discourse did not favour avant garde art in Finland in the 1910s The latest trends introduced by German and Russian artists in three pioneering exhibitions in Helsinki in 1914 and 1916 were dismissed by the Finnish press as foolish and unworthy This book researches the contemporary reactions and contents of these exhibitions The works shown in Helsinki included masterpieces from artists such as Chagall Jawlensky Kandinsky Marc M nter and Rozanova Today these works can be found in the collections of leading museums in Europe Russia and the USA From the Finnish perspective the turndown in the 1910s proved effective and irreversible Never again have the local collections had similar opportunities to make a purchase The rejection of radical international developments and emphasis on narrow nationalistic views left Finnish art lagging behind This trend was already apparent in 1917 in St Petersburg where the Finnish artists were celebrated but their paintings deemed sombre and superannuated Suomen nykymurteet Harri Mantila,2025-09-19 Puhutaanko

Helsingissäkin murrettua Vielkö savolaiset viittä ja kymmentä? Entä puhuvatko pohjalaiset edelleen hennepiltä? Suomen nykymurteet antaa vastauksia näihin ja lukuisiin muihin puhuttua suomen kieltä koskeviin kysymyksiin. Kokoomateos yhdistää viime vuosikymmenien tutkimusta siitä, miten murteet ovat muuttuneet kaupungistumisen myötä, mitkä murrepiirteet ovat edelleen elviä ja mitkä taantumassa. Teos jakaa suomen murteet tuoreella otteella itänsi ja pohjoismurteisiin ja esittelee kaikkien tärkeimmät piirteet sekä niiden sisäisen variaation. Perinteisen murteentutkimuksen rinnalle tuodaan uudempaa sosiolingvististä tutkimusta. Tiivis yleisesitys on suunnattu erityisesti yliopistolliseksi kurssikirjaksi, mutta on kiinnostavaa luettavaa myös muille murteista kiinnostuneille.

Designology Wojciech W. Gasparski, Tufan Orel, 2018-02-06. The more complex a human action is, the greater the need to formulate a plan of action, devise a method of implementation and evaluate its execution. Such preparation is called design or planning and can be defined as a conceptual preparation for action. Design and planning by themselves are so complex and important that they need informed preparation, which calls for systematic designological studies. This volume brings together original contributions of researchers and practitioners in design theory, design research and design studies. Its main purpose is to highlight the possibilities of the discipline of designology. Doing and thinking or thinking and doing whatever the order, are intertwined. That is why praxiology, the science of action, defines design as a conceptual preparation of action. Included here are contributions from Jack Brzezinski, Eduardo Corte Real, Nigel Cross, Michel Faucheux, Joelle Forest, Wojciech W. Gasparski, Ioannes B. Kapelouzios, Thorbjørn Mann, Tom Maver, Tarkko Oksala, Tufan Orel, Sevil Saryldiz and Ladislav Tondl. Designology is the latest volume in Transaction's highly regarded Praxiology series.
