Language, Identity, and Stereotype Among Southeast Asian American Youth Angela Reyes, 2017-09-25 This book an ethnographic and discourse analytic study of an after school video making project for 15 and second generation Southeast Asian American teenagers explores the relationships among stereotype identity and ethnicity that emerge in this informal educational setting Working from a unique theoretical foundation that combines linguistic anthropology Asian American studies and education and using rigorous linguistic anthropological tools to closely examine video and audio recorded interactions gathered during the video making project in which teen participants learned the skills for creating their own video and adult staff learned to respect and value the local knowledge of youth the author builds a compelling link between micro level uses of language and macro level discourses of identity race ethnicity and culture In this study of the ways in which teens draw on and play with circulating stereotypes of the self and the other Reyes uniquely illustrates how individuals can reappropriate stereotypes of their ethnic group as a resource to position themselves and others in interactionally meaningful ways to accomplish new social actions and to assign new meanings to stereotypes This is an important book for academics and students in sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology discourse analysis and applied linguistics with an interest in issues of youth race and ethnicity and or educational settings and will also be of interest to readers in the fields of education Asian American studies social psychology and sociology Resources in Education,2000-04 Ethnic Studies Research Timothy P. Fong,2008-05-02 Study of ethnic groups and race relations have always existed in the academy primarily in the areas of sociology and anthropology However grassroots movements for ethnic studies programs and departments came about with very different agendas for the study of these groups It is surprising then that relatively few books devoted to these methods exist to document and promote this innovation among succeeding generations of graduate students as well as current academics and professional practitioners Ethnic Studies Research synthesizes and benchmarks ethnic studies methodologies as interdisciplinary modes of inquiry providing state of the art summary chapters on key methods and issues extensive bibliographies and promising new directions for the future
