Hospitality Retail Management Conrad Lashley,2000 Customers rely on a particular chain of hotels restaurants or pubs to provide the same level of service and environment across the board This standardised service provides the customer with the security of knowing what to expect from that particular organisation However this standardisation allows little room for creativity for individual managers to respond to the particular needs of their local market There is a growing realisation that there is greater profitability if the chain can offer both standardised services across all its retail operations while at the same time allowing local managers the freedom to interpret the needs of its local market as they see fit Amazon com viewed March 15 2021
