

NEOLIBERALISM

Neoliberalism is a form of capitalism that promotes private, market-based interests at the expense of public and state-supported institutions.

EXPLANATION

Central to the neoliberal ideology is the idea that governments are poor economic managers and inefficient compared to private enterprises. Low government intervention and high levels of private participation in the economy are seen to be good for society.

EXAMPLES

1. Floating the Dollar in the 1970s
2. North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA)
3. Manufacturing Outsourcing to Mexico and China
4. Charter Schools in the United States
5. Deregulation of Industry
6. Privatization of Rail Networks

Tearing The Social Fabric Neoliberalism Deindustrialization And The Crisis Of Governance In Zimbabwe

Karin Nielsen-Saines

Tearing The Social Fabric Neoliberalism Deindustrialization And The Crisis Of Governance In Zimbabwe:

Tearing the Social Fabric Pádraig Risteard Carmody, 2001 As the second most industrially developed economy in Sub Saharan Africa World Bank officials argued that Zimbabwe could be the first African country to succeed with economic liberalization However the experience of structural adjustment was disastrous as it led to widespread deindustrialization In contrast to predictions a World Bank International Monetary Fund program led to the collapse of industries it was meant to promote textiles clothing and footwear This book examines the reasons behind this seeming paradox through an in depth case study of the experience of textiles clothing and footwear sub sectors in Zimbabwe under structural adjustment Economic liberalization failed because it did not relate to the local economic context This failure led to autonomous development of the trade and financial sectors to the detriment of production The economic crisis that resulted is a critical factor behind recent political instability and the current crisis of governance in Zimbabwe Padraig Carmody argues that alternatives must be based on a better understanding of the local politico economic context in Zimbabwe Neoliberalism, Civil Society and Security in Africa P. Carmody, 2007-10-17 Free market policies have been in operation across Africa for the past 25 years yet they have failed to reverse deepening poverty This book explores with case studies why such policies continue to be implemented and the ways in which they have been reinvented by socialization depoliticization regionalization and securitization Globalization, the Third World State and Poverty-Alleviation in the Twenty-First Century B. Ikubolajeh Logan, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2002 Bringing together an inspiring mix of US and African contributors this book explores the dynamics of the unfolding globalized economic political socio cultural and environmental systems Featuring incisive international commentary on the causes and consequences of poverty in the Third World it presents a powerful study of the strategies by which Third World governments and civil society can overcome poverty by insinuating themselves more creatively into the global order The result is one of the defining works so far produced on the tensions between globalization and development Political Liberalization and Democratization in Africa Julius O. Ihonvbere, John Mukum Mbaku Esq., 2003-12-30 Since the late 1980s Africans have been engaged in efforts to transform their societies and provide themselves with more effective governance and economic structures Unfortunately most of these efforts have not progressed beyond simple elections The contributors to this volume provide strategies that Africans can use to deepen democracy improve resource allocation and enhance their ability to coexist peacefully Mbaku Ihonvbere and their contributors while adopting a critical approach to the study of African political economy take a stand against Afro pessimism They articulate an holistic agenda for addressing Africa s multifarious problems reject received knowledge and through a dialectical methodology draw attention to the centrality of social categories classes the state civil society the environment communities and patterns of change in the continent Relying on fieldwork hard data and critical reviews of the extant literature the volume highlights the importance of democracy and democratization to the urgent restructuring that Africa needs in the new globalization Paying attention to the continent's historical experiences and its specificities the contributors draw attention to the importance of grassroots action leadership and the need to constitutionally entrench civil liberties

Decolonizing Development Joel Wainwright, 2011-07-22 Winner of the 2010 James M Blaut Award in recognition of innovative scholarship in cultural and political ecology Honors of the CAPE specialty group Cultural and Political Ecology Decolonizing Development investigates the ways colonialism shaped the modern world by analyzing the relationship between colonialism and development as forms of power Based on novel interpretations of postcolonial and Marxist theory and applied to original research data Amply supplemented with maps and illustrations An intriguing and invaluable resource for scholars of postcolonialism development geography and the Maya African Education and Globalization Ali A. Abdi, Korbala P. Puplampu, George Jerry Sefa Dei, 2006-01-01 Containing both theoretical discussions of globalization and specific case analyses of individual African countries this collection of essays examines the intersections of African education and globalization with multiple analytical and geographical emphases and intentions Globalization and the Cultures of Business in Africa Scott D. Taylor, 2021-12-22 Can Africa develop businesses beyond the extractive or agricultural sectors What would it take for Africa to play a major role in global business By focusing on recent changes Scott D Taylor demonstrates how Africa's business culture is marked by an unprecedented receptivity to private enterprise Challenging persistent stereotypes about crony capitalism and the lack of development Taylor reveals a long and dynamic history of business in Africa He shows how a hospitable climate for business has been spurred by institutional change globalization and political and economic reform Taylor encourages a broader understanding of the mosaic of African business and the diversity of influences and cultures that shape it The Roots of African Conflicts Alfred G. Nhema, Paul Tiyaambe Zeleza, 2008 This work along with The Resolution of African Conflicts clearly demonstrates the efforts by a wide range of African scholars to explain the roots routes regimes and resolution of African conflicts and how to rebuild post conflict societies Africa's Competitiveness in the Global Economy Ifedapo Adeleye, Mark Esposito, 2018-01-10 This book highlights the key issues opportunities and challenges facing African firms industries cities and nations in their quest to compete successfully in the global economy Exploring a topic which has grown in importance as Africa faces a period of subdued economic development this edited collection takes a unique multi disciplinary multi industry and multi country approach The authors provide insights into a broad range of issues including competitiveness measurement and evaluation sectoral competitiveness of declining and emerging industries threats of the Dutch Disease and talent competitiveness This timely book offers a response to the urgent need for the diversification of economies and the advancement of manufacturing in Africa appealing to scholars of international business and economics State, Land and Democracy in Southern Africa Arrigo Pallotti, Corrado Tornimbeni, 2016-03-03 Each country in southern Africa has a unique history but in all of them socio economic inequalities and high poverty levels weaken the governments legitimacy and represent a challenge to models of economic development

One key issue appears to be the solution of the land question. This vital concern affects both citizenship and democracy in the political systems of the region, yet no government has shown the capacity or commitment to solve it. In this volume, leading European, American, and African scholars explore in detail the relationship between state, land, and democracy. They examine the historical background of asset allocation and its impact on questions of nationality, the definition of citizenship, human rights, and the current political and economic processes in southern Africa.
