

The Four Gospels

- Matthew – Presents Jesus as King of Israel, the Christ, Son of David, Messiah greater than Moses.
- Mark – Presents Jesus as Suffering Servant of the Lord; probably the earliest Gospel.
- Luke – Presents Jesus as the Son of Man, providing salvation for all humanity. The most complete biography of Jesus.
- John – Presents Jesus as the divine, eternal Son of God who came to earth in human form. The most theological and symbolic of the Gospels.

The Gospel Of Jesus The Messiah The Synoptic View:

The Gospel of Jesus the Messiah Ronald Bickram, 2001-11-01 Lectures on New Testament Theology Peter C. Hodgson, 2016-03-24 Ferdinand Christian Baur 1792 1860 one of the great innovators in the study of the New Testament argued that each of its books reflects the interests and tendencies of its author in a particular religious historical milieu A critique of the writings must precede any judgments about the historical validity of individual stories about Jesus in the Gospels Thus Baur could move beyond the impasse created by Strauss's Life of Jesus Baur demonstrated that the Gospel of John is not a historical document comparable to the Synoptic Gospels and cannot be used to reconstruct the teaching of Jesus and that the Synoptic Gospels must be read critically and selectively He applied the same principles to the Epistles arguing that only four are genuinely Pauline Galatians 1 and 2 Corinthians and Romans Baur's Lectures on New Testament Theology delivered in Tübingen during the 1850s summarize thirty years of his research The lectures begin with an Introduction on the concept history and organization of New Testament theology Part One is devoted to the teaching of Jesus which Baur finds most reliably in Matthew Part Two contains the teaching of the Apostles in three chronological periods The first period presents the theological frameworks of the Apostle Paul and the Book of Revelation the second period the frameworks of Hebrews the Deutero Pauline Epistles James and Peter the Synoptic Gospels and Acts and the third period those of the Pastoral Epistles and the Gospel of John The Theology of the Gospel of John Dwight Moody Smith, 1995-01-26 D Moody Smith treats the theology of the Gospel of John in its narrative form and historical context both ancient Jewish and early Christian His work draws upon the most recent scholarly investigations of the Gospel's historical purpose and setting The major theological themes of the Gospel especially its christology are treated in relation to the context of the work since Johannine theology is not simply a by-product of controversies that produced the Gospel but is rather related to them in significant ways As Professor Smith shows John marks an important watershed between Christianity and Judaism His study will thus serve equally well as an introduction to the question of the origin of John and as an introduction to its theology It also consistently pays attention to the relationship of the Gospel to other major New Testament witnesses as well as to its important influence upon the development of later Christian doctrine Jesus and YHWH-Texts in the Synoptic Gospels Scott Brazil, 2024-02-21 Scott Brazil examines the frequent practice of applying Old Testament YHWH texts to Jesus in the Synoptic Gospels He argues that this YHWH text phenomenon evidences a high Christology in the primitive church that traces back to Jesus himself He thus finds in this Synoptic practice a stinging contradiction against the modern critical theory that a high Christology took many decades to develop in the early church and exists only in John among the canonical Gospels Brazil surveys the Synoptic Gospels in canonical order exegesis dozens of passages in which OT texts originally referring to YHWH are either clearly or most probably applied to Jesus He observes the frequency diversity and ubiquity of the practice as well as its wide range of OT source material and its parallel to the NT practice of applying OT messianic texts to Jesus And from the data he offers several ramifications including the early deliberate employment of YHWH texts to Jesus the likelihood that Jesus is the source of the practice the high Christology of the Synoptics and the redemptive historical metanarrative that Jesus is the divine interpreter and central figure of the Jewish Scriptures Ultimately Brazil argues that understanding the prolific application of OT YHWH texts to Jesus in the Synoptic Gospels cannot be neglected without truncating genuine NT Christology

The Synoptic Gospels Claude Goldsmid Montefiore,1909 Jesus is the Christ: The Messianic Testimony of the Gospels Michael F Bird,2012-06-01 Explains the importance of the title and role of Messiah in each of the Gospels and argues that Christianity was a messianic movement rooted in its Jewish context Michael Bird engages the subject of the messianism of the four Gospels While the title and role of Messiah ascribed to Jesus in the Gospels has long been regarded as a late add on a fabricated claim or an insignificant feature Bird argues in contrast that the messianic claims are the most significant for the portrayal of Jesus

The Synoptic Gospels Edited with an Introduction and a Commentary Claude Goldsmid Montefiore,1927 Biblical Theology: New Testament Chester Lehman,2018-11-30 The Princeton Theological Review ,1906 Includes section Reviews of recent literature Jesus Is the Christ Michael F. Bird,2013-02-27 Entering the fray of a hotly debated issue Michael Bird argues that the title and role of Messiah ascribed to Jesus is not a late addition to the four Gospels but their structural and semantic foundation Stressing that Christianity is itself a messianic movement Bird argues that the messianic testimony is the mother of all Christology
