Beyond the Grand Tour Rosemary Sweet, Gerrit Verhoeven, Sarah Goldsmith, 2017-02-17 Travel in early modern Europe is frequently represented as synonymous with the institution of the Grand Tour a journey undertaken by elite young males from northern Europe to the centres of the arts and antiquity in Italy Taking a somewhat different perspective this volume builds upon recent research that pushes beyond this narrow orthodoxy and which decentres Italy as the ultimate destination of European travellers Instead it explores a much broader pattern of travel undertaken by people of varied backgrounds and with divergent motives for travelling By tapping into current reactions against the reification of the Grand Tour as a unique and distinctive practice this volume represents an important contribution to the ongoing process of resituating the Grand Tour as part of a wider context of travel and topographical writing Focusing upon practices of travel in northern and western Europe rather than in Italy particularly in Britain the Low Countries and Germany the essays in this collection highlight how itineraries continually evolved in response to changing political economic and intellectual contexts In so doing the reasons for travel in northern Europe are subjected to a similar level of detailed analysis as has previously only been directed on Italy By doing this the volume demonstrates the variety of travel experiences including the many shorter journeys made for pleasure health education and business undertaken by travellers of varying age and background across the period In this way the volume brings to the fore the experiences of varied categories of traveller from children to businessmen which have traditionally been largely invisible in the historiography of travel Kit Carson Days (1809-1868) Edwin Legrand Sabin,1914 The Grand Canyon National Park United States. Congress. House. Committee on Resources. Subcommittee on National Parks and Public Lands,1998 The Grand Rapids Furniture Record ,1923 The Grand Canyon Thomas Fulton Dawson,1917 The Rough Guide to Los Angeles Jeff Dickey,2003 Fully updated this irreverent guide to the City of Angels focuses on both the major tourist destinations as well as lesser known gems and curiosities A colour photograph section brings the city s highlights to life from the Hollywood Hills to Santa Monica Boulevard Each chapter gives detailed coverage of each area s attractions from accommodation and restaurants to galleries shops sports activities and child oriented diversions There are also feature articles on such subjects as Hollywood LA on film architecture and LA people
