Teaching And Religious Imagination An Essay In The Theology Of Teaching:

Teaching and religious imagination : an essay in the theology of teaching Maria Harris,1991 Critical Perspectives on Christian Education Jeff Astley,Leslie J. Francis,1994 Teaching as a Sacramental Act Mary Elizabeth Moore,2004-11-01 Moore asserts that Christian vocation and the teaching vocation in particular can be best understood as sacramental mediating the grace of God through ordinary creation for the sanctification of human life and the well being of all creation She develops her argument through three important factors a historical theological analysis of the Christian sacraments and sacramentality a phenomenological study of teaching events and a description of six sacramental movements and corresponding teaching practices informed by Jewish Christian traditions and Eucharistic practices The nine detailed chapters include Searching for the Sacred Sacred Teaching Education as Sacrament Expecting the Unexpected Remembering the Dismembered Seeking Reversals Giving Thanks Nourishing Life Reconstructing Community and Repairing the World and Mapping the Future of Sacramental Teaching Teaching as a Sacramental Act is ideal for students pastors Christian educators spiritual directors and pastoral caregivers who want to rethink and reshape the teaching ministry of the church Engaged Teaching in Theology and Religion Renee K. Harrison,Jennie S. Knight,2015-10-21 This book guides scholars and teachers of theology and religion through a process of self reflection that leads to intentional transformative teaching dialogue and reform in theological education and religious studies Teaching with the Wind Michael Dallaire,2011-11-16 Teaching with the Wind tackles the question Can education for a Canadian civic spirituality bridge the sometimes incommensurable worldviews of faith based schools and secular public schools An affirmative answer is offered based on two foundations First that a national soul can be identified and thus serve as the content of spiritual education in Canada schools Second that a reconstructed approach to the contemplation in action method found in world religions and philosophy can provide an appropriate pedagogy for Canadian spiritual education This book argues that education for civic spirituality is of paramount importance as Canada continues its transition from a Judeo Christian and bicultural nation to a multi faith and multicultural nation within a secular democracy It offers a direction that would enrich religious and secular education systems as well as Canada as a whole Teaching and Learning for Wholeness Clifford Mayes,2016-12-08 In Teaching for Wholeness Clifford Mayes continues to expand the horizons of Jungian pedagogy a movement that draws upon the thought of Carl Jung and Jungian scholars to address crucial educational issues and define new ones Mayes leads readers through an analysis of Freudian and post Freudian psychology in educational theory and practice an examination of the epistemological foundations of Jungian thought and a demonstration of how Jungian psychology can uniquely help teachers reflect deeply upon their roles as educators Mayes also explores Jung s view of symbolism and its implications for curriculum and the Jungian idea of the shadow as the launching point for an examination of education as reclamation of the soul before concluding with the case for individuation as the proper goal of education The Oxford Handbook of Religion and American Education Michael D. Waggoner, Nathan C. Walker, 2018-08-01 From the founding of Harvard College in 1636 as a mission for training young clergy to the landmark 1968 Supreme Court decision in Epperson v Arkansas which struck down the state's ban on teaching evolution in schools religion and education in the United States have been inextricably linked Still today new fights emerge over the rights and limitations of religion in the classroom The Oxford Handbook of Religion and American Education brings together preeminent scholars from the fields of religion education law and political science to craft a comprehensive survey and assessment of the study of religion and education in the United States The essays in the first part develop six distinct conceptual lenses through which to view American education including Privatism Secularism Pluralism Religious Literacy Religious Liberty and Democracy The following four parts expand on these concepts in a diverse range of educational frames public schools faith based K 12 education higher education and lifespan faith development Designed for a diverse and interdisciplinary audience this addition to the Oxford Handbook series sets for itself a broad goal of understanding the place of religion and education in a modern democracy Reclaiming the Spirituals Yolanda Y. Smith, 2010-11-01 This volume deals with the varied forms of shame reflected in biblical theological psychological and anthropological sources Although traditional theology and church practice concentrate on providing forgiveness for shameful behavior recent scholarship has discovered the crucial relevance of social shame evoked by mental status adversity slavery abuse illness grief and defeat Anthropologists sociologists and psychologists have discovered that unresolved social shame is related to racial and social prejudice to bullying crime genocide narcissism post traumatic stress and other forms of toxic behavior Eleven leaders in this research participated in a conference on The Shame Factor sponsored by St Mark's United Methodist Church in Lincoln NE in October 2010 Their essays explore the impact and the transformation of shame in a variety of arenas comprising in this volume a unique and innovative resource for contemporary religion therapy ethics and social analysis The Faith Lives of Women and Girls Nicola Slee, Fran Porter, Anne Phillips, 2016-03-16 Identifying illuminating and enhancing understanding of key aspects of women and girls faith lives The Faith Lives of Women and Girls represents a significant body of original qualitative research from practitioners and researchers across the UK Contributors include new and upcoming researchers as well as more established feminist practical theologians Chapters provide perspectives on different ages and stages of faith across the life cycle from a range of different cultural and religious contexts Diverse spiritual practices beliefs and attachments are explored including a variety of experiences of liminality in women's faith lives A range of approaches ethnographic oral history action research interview studies case studies and documentary analysis combine to offer a deeper understanding of women's and girls faith lives As well as being of interest to researchers this book presents resources to enhance ministry to and with women and girls in a variety of settings

Christian Education and the Emerging Church Rev. Dr. Wendi Sargeant, 2015-07-24 All signs point to Christian education having lost its theological location and prominence in the life of the Western Protestant church The Emerging

Church movement as an intentionally postmodern approach to ministry in the contemporary context may however offer insights to reinterpret Christian education This significant movement in today s church gives Christian education a new interpretive framework that is theologically located at an intersection of doxology and doctrine In her examination of postmodern faith formation Wendi Sargeant explores the importance of the Christian worshipping community as the most appropriate setting for Christian education Practitioners and students will benefit from the ready to use teaching and learning matrix and all those with interest in the formation of faith in themselves and others will draw much from the way Sargeant situates worship as the basis for enhancing Christian formation and ethos
