Education and Society in Comparative Context Eija

Kimonen,2015-12-17 What was the interrelationship between education and society during the twentieth century in the United States and India What is the essence of the historical development of educational policies and social systems in these two countries What philosophical views and developmental courses underlie their outdoor oriented education What are their aims of outdoor oriented education What procedures are connected with their outdoor oriented education These questions are examined in this unique volume This book is divided into three parts The first part creates a context for the comparison of the issues concerning education and society The central point of departure used here regards education as being closely related to the totality of culture and human activity The dialectic process between education and society is realized differently in accordance with the value objectives that provide the background for different societies This comparative educational study uses a historico hermeneutical approach The second part analyzes the social systems and educational policies of the United States and India following their developmental trends and patterns The nature of the relationship between education and society for each country is further brought into focus when it is interpreted from the perspective of the philosophical views pedagogical aims and procedures of twentieth century outdoor oriented education The case studies provide an interesting insight into how changes in educational policy have been reflected in the every day pedagogical procedures used in schools in the United States and India The third part is an analysis and comparison of the phenomena previously presented that are related to education and society through the lenses suggested by sociological theories It compares the dimensions of the interrelationship between education and society from the standpoint of outdoor oriented education in the two countries during the twentieth century This thought provoking volume is intended for anybody interested in the interplay between education and society in all its complexity It offers a fascinating journey into the past and present of the issues that have defined the development of education and society in the United States and India Engaging Curriculum Bill Green,2017-09-18 Explicitly linking curriculum inquiry to English education via recurring themes of representation democracy and knowledge this book is a call for both researchers and practitioners to engage with curriculum explicitly and deliberately as both a concept and a question The approach is broadly conceptual and constitutes an exercise in theoretical and philosophical inquiry While deeply informed by North American debates and developments this book offers a distinctive counterpoint and a strategically ex centric perspective being equally informed by the curriculum scene in Australia as well as the UK and elsewhere Divided into two sections this book first addresses matters of general curriculum inquiry while the second turns more specifically to English teaching and to associated questions of language literacy and literature in L1 education Green brings the two together through a critical examination of the Australian national curriculum especially in its implications and challenges for English teaching and with due regard for the project of transnational curriculum inquiry

P facing t p The Green Middle Ages Claudine Chavannes-Mazel, Linda IJpelaar, 2025-10-01 How green were people in late antiquity and the Middle Ages Unlike today the nature around them was approached with faith trust and care The population size was many times smaller than today and human impact on nature not as extreme as it is now People did not have to worry about issues like deforestation and sustainability This book is about the knowledge of plants and where that knowledge came from How did people use earth and plants in ancient times and what did they know about their nutritional or medicinal properties From which plants one could make dyes such as indigo woad and dyer s madder Is it possible to determine that through technical research today Which plants could be found in a ninth century monastery garden and what is the symbolic significance of plants in secular and religious literature The Green Middle Ages addresses these and other issues including the earliest herbarium collections with a leading role for the palaeography and beautiful illuminations from numerous medieval manuscripts kept in Dutch and other Western libraries and museums
