International Handbook on Giftedness Larisa Shavinina,2009-08-12 If you publish you are trying to create something that is original that stands out from the crowd Above all you want to create something you are proud of Richard Branson 2002 p 57 After the publication of my bestselling International Handbook on Innovation publishers from around the world began to invite me to work on new books with them When Springer invited me to prepare the International Handbook on Giftedness I was on a maternity leave with my 3 months old and my 5 year old was just starting school I however had wanted to prepare such a Handbook for a long time and was waiting for just the right moment to dive right into such an endeavor The time had come and I agreed to prepare a Handbook that would expose readers to new views great discoveries and significant advancements of scientific knowledge exactly as Richard Feynman advised see his opening quote at the beginning of the introductory chapter I have always been convinced of the paramount significance of the topic of giftedness and gifted education to the world as a whole There is no doubt that gifted individuals are and will be extremely important to society One way to understand the history of human civilization is via inventions and discoveries of the gifted All human cultural development builds on the amazing technological scientific and moral achievements of the human mind Today people increasingly realize that gifted and talented individuals are even more important than in the past

Developing Leadership in the Asia Pacific Sivan Phillipson, Shane N. Phillipson, 2013-11-26 Developing Leadership in the Asia Pacific focuses on the design of leadership programs that are able to meet the needs of students teachers and the wider community Rather than taking an all encompassing approach that cover all contexts of leadership development this book is based on research that guides the leadership teacher in designing a course that takes into account the specific context and needs of individual students the purpose of the course and how the course can be evaluated for its effectiveness Emphasising learner diversity the book argues that the students specific cultural and educational contexts need to be taken into account when designing leadership programs Although these courses are often taught outside of the regular curriculum components of leadership can be found in the regular curriculum Accordingly this book helps the leadership teacher to integrate the leadership program with the regular curriculum through the use of guiding questions quizzes case studies dilemmas and other pedagogical strategies It links research with practice scaffolding teachers in understanding the content or issues described in each chapter assisting them in building a fully defensible leadership program A number of real life worked examples are also provided throughout each chapter as a practicable framework that can be used in teaching design for everyday units of work This book is a useful reference for researchers working in leadership as well as an essential tool for teachers developing leadership programs for students in primary secondary or tertiary contexts
