Teaching In Mind How Teacher Thinking Shapes Education:

Teaching in Mind Judith Lloyd Yero Ma,2010 This text explores unconscious beliefs values metaphors and meanings that shape an educator's personal world and his or her interactions with students

Teaching in Mind Judith Lloyd Yero,2002 Although teachers are recognized as one of the most important factors in the effective education of children much of the power they possess remains unexamined Teaching in Mind offers teachers a variety of ways to explore their own beliefs values meanings metaphors and presuppositions that often result in conflict in an educational setting It helps teachers reflect on and evaluate their thinking envision their ideal classroom and select teaching methods to support their vision Teaching in Mind encourages teachers to value their own expertise and to take their place as leaders in educational improvement

The Meaning of Learning and Knowing Erik Jan van Rossum,Rebecca Hamer,2010-01-01 The Meaning of Learning and Knowing co authored by Erik Jan van Rossum and Rebecca Hamer brings together empirical studies on epistemology student thinking teacher thinking educational policy and staff development forging a solid and practical foundation for educational innovation Since the 1980s they developed and published about a six stage developmental model describing the qualitatively different ways students and teachers view learning and good teaching A model with far reaching consequences for education educational innovation and democratic society Their comprehensive review of research from many disciplines underpins the empirical evidence of over 650 students and teachers Each of the six worldviews results in a unique way of meaning making These six Ways of Knowing or Orders of Consciousness are characterised by increasing complexity of thinking with fourth level thinking or self authorship representing the most common espoused goal of higher education Ample evidence is presented that higher education is not attaining its own espoused goals One explanation may be that many teachers in higher education have not themselves reached the minimum required way of knowing preventing them from constructing a developmental path for their students Van Rossum and Hamer's epistemological model provides clear signposts on the developmental education highway and has proven its worth as an instrument for curriculum design measurement of epistemological development and as a tool for staff development

Developing Reflective Practice: a Guide for Beginning Teachers Debra McGregor,Lesley Cartwright,2011-08-16 This student friendly practical guide helps you get to grips with reflective practice in teaching through bite sized sections that are informative and quickly digestible The book clearly explains some of the best known theories on reflective practice and then shows how reflection on and in practice can have a positive impact on classroom performance The very real problems faced by beginning teachers are brought to life through the use of rich case studies as well as extracts drawn from the reflective journals of those starting their teaching career The illustrative case studies consider how reflective practice can inform your teaching practice including Preparing for teaching Fitting into your school Designing lessons Managing behaviour Planning for creativity Assessing effectively Developing essential teaching techniques Working effectively with your mentor Extending your professional practice at

Master s level An additional feature of the book is the inclusion of a number of new suggestions for developing reflective practice based on the authors experience of training new teachers and supporting beginning teachers Through reflective tasks based on the real problems that beginning teachers face you can actively develop your understanding and confidence in this area This book is essential reading for trainees and newly qualified teachers as well as those supporting new entrants to the profession

The Purposes, Practices, and Professionalism of Teacher Reflectivity Edward G. Pultorak,2010-03-16 Very little information about the impact of reflection on teacher performance teacher retention and student learning is available in teacher preparation programs This book provides practical and research based chapters that offer greater clarity about the particular kinds of reflection that matter and avoids talking about teacher reflection generically which implies that all kinds of reflection are of equal value This book addresses five very pertinent concepts 1 teacher reflectivity in theory and research 2 teacher reflectivity in teacher education programs 3 teacher reflectivity with teacher candidates 4 teacher reflectivity in schools and classrooms and 5 teacher reflectivity and international perspectives

Teaching Rick Churchill,Tiffani Apps,Jantiena Batt,Karley Beckman,Peter Grainger,Jessica Holloway,Amanda Keddie,Will Letts,Jennu Mackay,Michelle McGill,Julianne Moss,Michael C. Nagel,Kylie Shaw,Jessa Rogers,2024-10-28 The sixth edition of Teaching Making A Difference stands as a cornerstone resource for pre service educators seeking a comprehensive contemporary and accessible introduction to the field of teaching Through its meticulous attention to accuracy and relevance this text offers students the possibility to engage with the latest initiatives and governmental mandates shaping educational landscapes Local case studies woven throughout each chapter serve as illuminating exemplars of current best practices addressing the diverse cultural challenges confronting modern society With its blend of theoretical insight and practical application this textbook equips aspiring teachers with the essential knowledge and skills needed to make a meaningful impact in today s classrooms

No One Is A Stranger ,2022-08-12 The title of the book is taken from the last message of Sri Sarada Devi to the world Learn to make the whole world your own No one is a stranger my child The whole world is your own In keeping with the message this compilation of articles contains several insightful ideas on how to nurture inter personal relationships with spiritual values the stress being on the word spiritual Reminiscences and anecdotes highlight the practical ways the thoughts in the book can be translated into action An English rendering of a Bengali poem by Swami Vivekananda and an article by The Dalai Lama find place The opinions of a cross section of people mainly youth on the subject of the book have also been published Individuals and organisations all over the world aiming to enhance the quality of their inter personal relationships will benefit from reading this book

Resilience Begins with Beliefs: Building on Student Strengths for Success in School Sara Truebridge,2013-12-06 As adults working in schools educators beliefs translate into messages actions and behaviors that can enhance or impede student success This book affirms why beliefs are so important and why it is imperative to spend time focusing on reflecting upon and affecting educators beliefs especially about students resilience The author draws from her extensive experience in research policy and practice to present a wealth of information strategies and tools to help educators transfer current resilience theory and research into practice Unfortunately being an educator is not always publically supported financially rewarded or highly valued Responding to these circumstances Resilience Begins with Beliefs is an effective resource to support the resilience of the teachers and administrators working in our schools as well as to facilitate any environment conducive to greater learning and life outcomes for all students

Mind Expanding: Teaching for Thinking and Creativity in Primary Education Rupert Wegerif, 2010-08-16 An essential addition Wegerif zooms in on the most important ingredient of all in a learning to learn classroom culture the kinds of talk that are allowed and encouraged and brings together both scholarly and practical approaches in a highly fruitful and accessible way Guy Claxton author of Building Learning Power What's the Point of School and New Kinds of Smart This is a thought provoking and readable book which makes a very good case for the importance of teaching thinking skills and encouraging creativity through dialogue Professor Neil Mercer University of Cambridge UK author of Words and Minds and Dialogue and Development There is growing interest in developing flexible thinking and learning skills in the primary classroom but there has been little agreement as to exactly what these skills are and how best to teach for them This innovative book responds to that challenge with a coherent account of what thinking and creativity are and how they can be taught Taking a dialogic approach it shows how engaging children in real dialogue is possible in every area of the curriculum and how this can lead to more reflective considerate and creative children who are able to think for themselves and to learn creatively Wegerif explores the success of approaches such as Philosophy for Children Thinking Together Dialogic Teaching and Building Learning Power Using illustrations and activities he explains how teaching and learning across the primary curriculum can be transformed This book is important reading for all primary teachers and trainees who are looking for practical ideas for teaching thinking It will also be valuable for anyone who wants to understand education and think more about what is most important in education

Encyclopedia of the Social and Cultural Foundations of Education: A-H ; 2, I-Z ; 3, Biographies, visual history, index Eugene F. Provenzo, John P. Renaud, Asterie Baker Provenzo, 2009 The Encyclopedia provides an introduction to the social and cultural foundations of education The first two volumes consist of A-Z entries featuring essays representing the major disciplines including philosophy history and sociology and a third volume is made up of documentary photographic and visual resources
