Teaching Our Men, Reaching Our Fathers Matthew Parker, 2002 How can we address some of the situations that plague African American men Matthew Parker takes an in depth look at the various challenges and issues African American men face as they grow up Divided into decades of a man's life Parker offers this exhortation make sure that our children and grandchildren and protgs form like the faithful few who remained true to the one God of Israel a remnant of those who have gained godly wisdom Parker does an excellent job of including case studies of churches and organizations that are effectively teaching and reaching African American men CASE STUDIES The first study focuses on prisons There are 34 sentenced African American male inmates per 1 000 African American men in the United States versus only 4 sentenced white male inmates per 1 000 white men The second covers a comprehensive curriculum to address the needs of African American males men boys and fathers in the church The third covers an innovative program to reach adolescents via an intensive long term small group process

Church for the Fatherless Mark E. Strong, 2012-08-02 Mark Strong explains why churches are uniquely suited to become places of refuge for our nation's fatherless From mentoring programs for dads to special ministry efforts for children Strong gives practical ways that churches can be conformed to the image of our loving Father Our Father, Our Teacher Christopher J. Reeves, 2022-09-16 From the beginning God created men and women in his own image as the objects of his love His intention has been to father mankind raising us as his children While the intimacy of this relationship was broken through the fall our Father has never stopped loving us His faithful lovingkindness is unchanged And through Jesus we not only see the intimate relationship of Father and Son as the divine pattern but we find ourselves restored as children in his household Through Jesus we can experientially live in relationship with our Father and through the working of the Holy Spirit within affectionately call him our Abba The greatest opportunity is now afforded to us to walk in loving intimacy with our Father as he raises us teaches us his ways and matures within us his divine nature of other centered love Our Father Our Teacher is a biblical exploration of how God is drawing men and women to himself in an experiential relationship of love and learning
