The Great Adoptee Search:

The Great Adoptee Search Book Jean A. S. Strauss, 1990-10-01 Where do I come from Who do I look like What genes have I inherited Adoptees can be haunted by these other questions Many say they feel there is a piece missing from their identity Yet until records are unsealed adoptees have no chance of learning the answers they seek no chance except by undertaking a search on their own for their roots Today more more adoptees are choosing to seek out their pasts Yet the decision alone to search does not bring the answers one seeks Adoptees are immediately confronted by the question how The Great Adoptee Search Book leads step by step through a simple formula of how to search By using everything from vital records background histories library references maps phone books church records school yearbooks much more the book teaches how building profiles can lead straight to one's birth parents without even knowing their names Providing key resources of search agencies support groups referral services birth registries the book is an excellent reference source as well as a guide Included is a checklist of sixty search objectives which makes searching as simple as following a map Video version of the book also available through Castle Rock Publishing Recommended by Dr Dirck Brown founder of the Post Adoption Center for Education Research Chairman of International Soundex Reunion Registry An Adoptee's Search for Identity Judy Bryant, 2015-07-28 When I was thirteen the news had been broken to me that I had been adopted The mother I had known until the age of seven had been my adoptive mother and I perhaps had another real mother in name only somewhere in the world Beginning in the 1930s An Adoptee's Search for Identity details Judy Bryant's life as an adopted child and the subsequent emotional difficulties she faced as an adult As a child Judy was reluctant to smile even when she was cared for at an adoption society's home she was not a happy baby while there and her introduction to prospective adoptive parents did not produce a smile from her Struggling to overcome the initial abandonment she felt as a young child Judy's life quickly spiralled into emotional turmoil after her adoptive mother's death As an adult Judy struggled to come to terms with who she was Following a period of self-induced anorexia and resultant agoraphobia she suffered a severe emotional breakdown aged just 21 In later life Judy was fortunate enough to be able to trace and meet up with her birth family although she never lost the closeness and emotional connection she feels with her adoptive family having never truly lost the abandoned feeling An Adoptee's Search for Identity provides a fascinating insight into the life of an adoptee and illustrates the deep emotional turmoil Judy has suffered throughout her life This touchingly honest account will appeal to women mothers and those interested in adoption The Great American Mosaic Gary Y. Okihiro, Lionel C. Bascom, James E. Seelye Jr., Emily Moberg Robinson, Guadalupe Compeán, 2014-09-30 Firsthand sources are brought together to illuminate the diversity of American history in a unique way by sharing the perspectives of people of color who participated in landmark events This invaluable four volume compilation is a comprehensive source of documents that give voice to those who comprise the American mosaic illustrating the experiences of racial and ethnic minorities in the United States Each volume focuses on a major racial ethnic
