uncertain society The story chronicles the life and death of Niece Thompson Niece suffers a tormented childhood and witnesses her younger sister killed by a drunk driver Through her adolescence she endures an abusive mother that hides behind the veil of Christianity To establish a sense of self Niece runs away from home but her experiences have virtually shaped a delusional and skewed view of the world around her Homeless and struggling Niece meets Hope Andersen They fall in love but as a young woman Niece s sexuality and personal identity fall victim to her past As they plan for a future together Hope s deepest carnal desires mark their relationship with a degree of darkness and turmoil Niece s worst fears manifest in the graceful form of her adversary a blond haired woman named Casky The ensuing conflict between Niece and Casky is a portrayal of self serving corruption in pursuit of an overwhelming desire Combining elements of suspense and romance the literary contribution is designed to capture the imagination with a polemic challenge to race religion and relationships The story in its shallows examines covetousness worship desire and praise However in its surreal depths uncovers the idolization of the blonde the brunette and the redhead Very different the work travels through the Church of the Great American White Woman and takes us to the door of Pandemonium Filled with unique and memorable characters the story is an intricate web of life and human nature
