The Great Bear Lake Meditations J. Michael Yates, 1971 Canadian Literary Landmarks John Robert Colombo, 1984-01-01 Canadian Literary Landmarks History of Literature in Canada Reingard M. Nischik, 2008 The development of literature in Canada with an eye to its multicultural multiethnic multilingual nature From modest colonial beginnings literature in Canada has arrived at the center stage of world literature Works by English Canadian writers both established writers such as Margaret Atwood and new talents such as Yann Martel make regular appearances on international bestseller lists French Canadian literature has also found its own voice in the North American and francophone worlds CanLit has likewise developed into a staple of academic interest pursued in Canadian Studies programs in Canada and around the world This volume draws on the expertise of scholars from Canada Germany Austria and France tracing Canadian literature from the indigenous oral tradition to the development of English Canadian and French Canadian literature since colonial times Conceiving of Canada as a single but multifaceted culture it accounts for specific characteristics of English and French Canadian literatures such as the vital role of the short story in English Canada or that of the chanson in French Canada Yet special attention is also paid to Aboriginal literature and to the pronounced transcultural ethnically diverse character of much contemporary Canadian literature thus moving clearly beyond the traditions of the two founding nations Contributors Reingard M Nischik Eva Gruber Iain M Higgins Guy Laflèche Dorothee Scholl Gwendolyn Davies Tracy Ware Fritz Peter Kirsch Julia Breibach Lorraine York Marta Dvorak Jerry Wasserman Ursula Mathis Moser Doris G Eibl Rolf Lohse Sherrill Grace Caroline Rosenthal Martin Kuester Nicholas Bradley Anne Nothof Georgiana Banita Gilles Dupuis and Andrea Oberhuber Reingard M Nischik is Professor of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany The Fiddlehead Kent Thompson, 1971 Canada and the Idea of North Sherrill E Grace, 2002-04-15 Canada and the Idea of North examines the ways in which Canadians have defined themselves as a northern people in their literature art music drama history geography politics and popular culture From the Franklin Mystery to the comic book superheroine Nelvana Glenn Gould's documentaries the paintings of Lawren Harris and Molson beer ads the idea of the north has been central to the Canadian imagination Sherrill Grace argues that Canadians have always used ideas of Canada as North to promote a distinct national identity and national unity In a penultimate chapter The North Writes Back Grace presents newly emerging northern voices and shows how they view the long tradition of representing the North by southern activists artists and scholars With the recent creation of Nunavut increasing concern about northern ecosystems and social challenges and renewed attention to Canada's role as a circumpolar nation Canada and the Idea of North shows that nordicity still plays an urgent and central role in Canada at the start of the twenty first century Making a Poem Miller Williams, 2006-10-01 We need poetry as we need love and company according to Miller Williams Making a Poem speaks to us all those of us trying to write a first poem those who have published volumes of poetry and anyone who cares

how the world and language fit together Distinguished as a poet a teacher a scholar and a publisher Williams traverses a wealth of topics He explores poetic techniques of line break rhythm and meter and the development of verse forms In our technological age he makes clear that poetry is essential to the human soul showing the connection between scientists and humanists Williams draws from experience to describe the importance of teaching poetry to prisoners the value of the university and the small press in fostering poetry and the relationship between writer and editor Making a Poem is an intimate conversational treatise on poetry by a man of letters with decades of practice in both the business and the craft of verse Readers will take away from this delightful book a deeper appreciation of the poet s art and the vital role poetry can play in their everyday lives Rendezvous ,1970 Canadian Poets, 1960-1973 George Woodcock,1976-01-01 Compiled in 1976 by George Woodcock this book lists works by 600 poets in 1200 books and booklets during the era leading up to Canada s literary coming of age This listing of the writings in verse of Canadian poets between 1960 and 1973 came into existence because I was invited by Carl F Klinck the General Editor of the Literary History of Canada to write for a new edition of that work the chapter covering poetry published in Canada since 1960 It was obvious that my first need was an adequate list for I very soon realized that in quantity even more than in character the poetry published in Canada during the past decade has differed radically from what had appeared at any other time in the literary progress of our country Introductory note by George Woodcock International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications,2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who s Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King s Queen s Gold medal and other poetry prizes Index to Canadian Poetry in English Jane McQuarrie,Anne Mercer,Gordon M.
