The Gospel According To Saint Mark:

The Gospel According to Saint Mark Archibald Macbride Hunter, 1982 Gospel According to St. Mark
Hooker, Morna Dorothy Hooker, 1991-01-01 St Mark's Gospel is among the earliest records about Jesus of Nazareth. This commentary focuses primarily on the problem of understanding what Mark himself intended to convey to his readers when he set out to write the good news of Jesus Christ. There is an examination of information in the Gospel about the historical Jesus, about the early Christian community, and about Mark's theological concerns. There is also consideration of the sources for the Gospel of the tradition behind it, and of interventions by editors. Professor Hooker's new commentary takes account of the many lastest twentieth century Markan studies and comes with her own translation of the Gospel. References to Greek sources are included but do not require a knowledge of Greek. The Gospel According to St. Mark, 1920 The Gospel According to Saint Mark, 1920 The Gospel according to st. Mark [ed.] by S.F. Smith Mark (st), 1901 The Gospel According to Saint Mark C. E. B. Cranfield, 1977 The last fifty years have seen a shift of emphasis in New Testament scholarship. When the task was to establish the text and to discuss the authenticity of the documents, linguistic and historical considerations came first. Now that these things are approaching a settled state, it has become possible and necessary to give more attention to the theological and religious content of the New Testament. Hence the New Testament is re-examined by scholars in this new series. Each volume takes a book of the New Testament and, after an introduction on general matters, goes through the text in great detail, commenting especially on theological matters relating the contents to the life and worship of the early Christian communities. It is assumed that students have their own Greek text beside the open commentary. The text on which the commentary is based is the Kilpatrick Nestle edition. The Gospel According to Saint Mark Robert Eaton, 2012-08-01 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts: 1 We have not used OCR (Optical Character Recognition) as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos. 2 In books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches, etc., we have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact. The earliest of extant commentators on St Mark urges as his apology for undertaking so serious a task, the neglect which that Evangelist appeared to have suffered at the hands of the great teachers of the Church.
