The Grace Of Difference A Canadian Feminist Theological Ethic:

The Grace of Difference Marilyn J. Legge, 1992 Marion J Legge addresses theological ethics from the context of Canadian women especially the experience of marginalized women in Canada Beginning with a critical reassessment of Canadian Radical Christianity she argues that approaches that center on question of economic justice have nevertheless overlooked the day to day economic realities of Canadian women Legge develops a reformulated critical theory of culture that though it emphasizes difference avoids premature abstraction and misplaced generalizations She seeks a voice to articulate the theological and ethical dimensions of women s experience in the texts of three Canadian novels In Search of April Raintree by Beatrice Cullen The Diviners by Margaret Laurence and Obasan by Joy Kogawa Feminist Theology Watson, 2003-12-08 Rethinking the Christian faith from a woman s perspective has been an important advancement in modern theology This book introduces the methods ideas and contributions of recent feminist theology to readers encountering the subject for the first time Natalie Watson explores the historical background of feminist theology discusses the value of reading Scripture from a feminist perspective and shows how this approach can offer a critical creative and constructive rereading of the Christian tradition She also sets forth some fresh ideas encouraging people to see feminism not as a threat to the church but as a challenging perspective that actually enhances its life in today s world An extensive annotated bibliography invites readers to further study presenting a wealth of books on feminist theology by many well known authors Ideal for classroom instruction discussion groups and personal study this volume is an exceptional user friendly guide to contemporary feminist thought

Airhart, Marilyn J. Legge, Gary L. Redcliffe, 2002-05-30 Doing Ethics in a Pluralistic World is an apt title for this collection of essays in honour of Roger C Hutchinson who over many decades has encouraged and participated in shaping a Canadian contextual social ethics His abiding interest in social ethics and in religious engagement with public issues is reflected in his life's work seeking the consensus and self knowledge required to achieve cooperation in the search for a just participatory and sustainable society One of Roger Hutchinson's many notable accomplishments is his development of a method of dialogue for ethical clarification in situations of diversity Some of the essays collected here apply this method to specific issues while others discuss how religious persons and organizations can and do co operate in a pluralistic world to achieve social and ecological well being All essays are of keen interest to those concerned with the role and function of ethics at the matrix of religious conviction and social transformation For nearly three decades Roger Hutchinson has been based at Victoria University in Toronto first in religious studies then at Emmanuel College where he completed his teaching career as professor of church and society while serving as principal from 1996 to 2001 Hsieh Liang-tso and the Analects of Confucius Thomas W. Selover, 2005-01-20 Hsieh Liang tso c 1050 c 1120 known as master Shang ts ai was one of the leading direct disciples of Ch eng Hao and Ch eng I the two brothers who were the early leaders of the Confucian revival known as Neo Confucianism in Northern Sung China Hsieh was thus among the first to recognize and follow the insights of the Ch eng brothers as definitive of the authentic Confucian tradition a recognition that became the conviction of the majority of later Confucian scholars and practitioners The present book is a focused analysis of the core value of Confucian thought namely jen humanity or co humanity through an investigation of Hsieh Liang tso's analysis of the Analects of Confucius Selover argues that Hsieh's handling of key issues in interpreting and applying the Confucian Analects his experiential reasoning and his deference to scriptural classics and earlier tradition bear important similarities to the practice of theology in Western religious traditions The volume also contains a translation of Hsieh's commentary on the Analects as well as a foreword by the renowned scholar of Confucianism Tu Wei ming Graham Greene's Catholic Imagination Mark Bosco, 2005-02-17 Graham Greene's early books are described as Catholic Novels with his later work falling into political and detective genres This title argues that this is a false dichotomy created by a narrowly prescriptive understanding of the Catholic genre and obscures the impact of Greene's religious imagination on his literary art The Bonds of Freedom Rebekah Miles, 2001 Miles contends that an increasingly radical feminist emphasis on divine immanence and human boundedness has undercut key assumptions upon which feminism rests Niebuhr's realism she believes can be the source of a necessary correction
