The Grieving Time A Years Account Of Recovery From Loss:

The Grieving Time Anne M. Brooks, 1985 This modern classic now takes its permanent place in the literature of death and dying and is still the best book for anyone learning to live with the loss of a loved one The Grieving Time Anne Brooks, 2006-09 Spouses children and friends who have faced the loss of a loved one as well as counseling groups psychologists social workers chaplains and hospice workers will turn to this book for solace and comfort After He's Gone Barbara Tom Jowell, Barbara Jowell, Donnette Schwisow, 2001 This practical and inspirational guide throws out a lifeline to any woman who finds herself lost in the turbulent storms of divorce or widowhood With understanding and humor After He's Gone articulates the emotions specific to newly widowed and newly divorced women as well as the emotions they have in common and provides realistic advice on getting through the first weeks plus a useful list of simple things women can do to feel better immediately Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill Lessons in Loss and Living Michele A. Reiss, 2010-11-02 Dr Michele Reiss an expert in the field of death and dying specializes in helping clients cope with life threatening illnesses and helping their families through the grieving process A highly respected therapist she counseled Randy Pausch author of The Last Lecture and his wife Jai as Randy was dying of pancreatic cancer Now Dr Reiss provides comfort and counsel for readers who are coping with the challenges of serious illness or grief Through real life examples of people who have dealt with cancer and other illnesses she has given us a book about hope and the art of living and loving well despite significant adversity This beautifully written inspiring book reminds the rest of us that time is precious and that we should live our lives fully generously and with joy A Liturgy of Grief Leslie C. Allen, 2011-09 In this commentary on

Lamentations a respected Old Testament scholar and volunteer hospital chaplain presents a biblical model for helping those coping with grief Bereavement and Support Marylou Hughes,2013-11-12 In the early 1970s bereavement support groups were almost unknown However the obvious benefits of the group process for recovery the mutual support and understanding that helps mourners to a better outlook has created a demand for people who can organise and facilitate these groups Addressing the basis and need for support groups for the bereaved this book presents a theoretical overview examines benefits and variety of support groups structured and unstructural special populations and specifics for initiating organising and running them such as publicity It differs from other treatments in that theory and practice are moulded into a how to approach with all procedures presented equally for the widest range of choices Also included is a comprehensive book bibliography for adults children children s helpers and parents This text is intended to be of use as a resource for professionals in the field of thanatology including psychologists psychiatrists gerontologists therapists group counsellors hospice workers educators funeral home directors home health employees hospital staff and volunteer organisations that work with survivors The New York Times Book Reviews 2000 New York Times Staff,2001 This anthology examines Love s Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource Grieving Time: a Year's Account of Recovery from Loss Anne M. Brooks,1999-08-01 This modern classic now takes its permanent place in the literature of death and dying and is still the best book for anyone learning to live with the loss of a loved one Losing A Parent Fiona Marshall,2009-04-28 Whether from a sudden accident or a slow terminal illness the death of a parent is devastating to adults and children alike In Losing a Parent Fiona Marshall helps readers understand the process of coping with a parent s death from preparing for death to recognizing the different stages of grief from nurturing the relationship with the surviving parent to harnessing new strength to carry on with life Wise compassionate and practical Losing a Parent is an invaluable source of support for a time of overwhelming loss
