Peters, 2013-08-28 Stealing Things traces the representations of thieves and thievery in nineteenth century French novels Re reading canonical texts by Balzac the Comtesse de S gur and Zola through the lens of crime Peters highlights bourgeois anxiety about ownership and objects while considering the impact of literature on popular attitudes about crime and its legislation and punishment A detailed analysis of the role of objects this work chronicles nineteenth century changes in legal attitudes popular mentalities and individual and social identity focusing particularly on the resulting transformations in representations of gender class and criminal subjectivity

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Economics and Society Frederick F. Wherry, Juliet B. Schor, Consulting Editor, 2015-09-01 Economics is the nexus and engine that runs society affecting societal well being raising standards of living when economies prosper or lowering citizens through class structures when economies perform poorly Our society only has to witness the booms and busts of the past decade to see how economics profoundly affects the cores of societies around the world From a household budget to international trade economics ranges from the micro to the macro level It relates to a breadth of social science disciplines that help describe the content of the proposed encyclopedia which will explicitly approach economics through varied disciplinary lenses Although there are encyclopedias of covering economics especially classic economic theory and history the SAGE Encyclopedia of Economics and Society emphasizes the contemporary world contemporary issues and society Features 4 volumes with approximately 800 signed articles ranging from 1 000 to 5 000 words each are presented in a choice of print or electronic editions Organized A to Z with a thematic Reader s Guide in the front matter groups related entries Articles conclude with References Future Readings to guide students to the next step on their research journeys Cross references between and among articles combine with a thorough Index and the Reader s Guide to enhance search and browse in the electronic version Pedagogical elements include a Chronology of Economics and Society Resource Guide and Glossary This academic multi author reference work will serve as a general non technical resource for students and researchers within social science programs who seek to better understand economics through a contemporary lens

Shopping While Black Shaun L. Gabbidon, George E. Higgins, 2020-05-25 Winner of the 2022 Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences Outstanding Book Award Shopping While Black Consumer Racial Profiling in America lays out the results of nearly two decades of research on racial profiling in retail settings Gabbidon and Higgins address the generally neglected racial profiling that occurs in retail settings Although there is no existing national database on shoplifting or consumer racial profiling CRP from which to study the problem they survey relevant legal cases and available data sources This problem clearly affects a large number of racial ethnic minorities and causes real harm to the victims such as the emotional trauma attached to being excessively monitored in stores and in the worst case scenarios falsely accused of shoplifting Their analysis is informed by their own experience one co author is a former security executive

for a large retailer and both are Black men who understand firsthand the sting of being profiled because of their color After providing an overview of the history of CRP and the official and unofficial data sources and criminological literature on this topic they address public opinion polls as well as the extent and impact of victimization They also provide a review of CRP litigation provide recommendations for retailers to reduce racial profiling and also chart some directions for future research This book is appropriate for researchers as well as advanced undergraduates and graduate students in Criminology Black Studies Ethnic Studies Sociology Security Studies and Law programs and will be of interest to the general reader New Loss Prevention A. Beck, C. Peacock, 2015-12-11 Challenging existing ideas about not only what constitutes retail shrinkage but also the approach that should be adopted to deal with it it critically examines how current approaches to managing shrinkage are at best preventative and how through operational excellence organizations can reduce the impact it has on their profitability The Elgar Companion to Consumer Research and Economic Psychology Peter E. Earl, Simon Kemp, 2002-01-01 Presents over 100 specially commissioned entries on important topics in consumer research and economic psychology from behaviourism and brand loyalty to trust and the psychology of tourism Leading scholars in the fields provide stimulating insights into the area as well as summarising existing knowledge Deviant Behavior John A. Humphrey, Frank Schmallegger, Professor Frank A Schmallegger, 2019-12-11 This book covers the social forces that shape deviance the motivations and consequences of deviant behaviors and how our definition of deviance changes over time It examines a wide range of deviant behaviors from criminal acts to extreme forms of everyday behavior and helps students understand the impact of globalization on traditional and emerging forms of deviance The Textures of Time Michael G. Flaherty, 2011 What do we mean when we say I made the time pass more quickly or I m creating some me time In The Textures of Time Michael Flaherty examines how we alter or customize our experience of time His detailed analysis reveals different strategies we use to try to manipulate time further describing and defining those strategies within six discrete time categories Duration Frequency Sequence Timing Allocation and Taking Time Using in depth interviews and analyzing responses through a sociological lens Flaherty unearths folk theories and practices which he calls time work that construct circumstances in order to provoke desired forms of temporal experience As such time is not just inflicted on us rather its various textures result from our intervention and or from our efforts to create different forms of temporal experience These first person accounts also highlight ongoing tensions between agency and determinism in social groups Ultimately in keeping with his central thesis Flaherty s lucid prose make this book a quick read and the strategies he describes reveal the profound and inventive ways we manage the clock Shopping and Crime J. Bamfield, 2012-03-13 An interdisciplinary study of retail crime as a cultural phenomenon drawing on economics criminology and management to present a comprehensive explanation for the growth in retail thefts This topical study explores crime prevention as a management issue using criminomics a concept based on commercial realities rather than maximising arrests Handbook of Crime Correlates Lee Ellis, David P.
