And The Son Will Rise Danielle Hircock,2016-01-01 And the son will rise is a true story of courage hope and survival following the experiences of 18 year old Douglas Cumper of the 24th AIF Australian Imperial Forces battalion during the First World War Determined venturesome and strong spirited Doug embarks on a perilous journey to the Western Front Through confronting horrors of the front line with his mates he begins to question the value of life and how a turn of events can quickly tip the balance between life and death With trepidation his family back home in Australia anticipates his return while Doug feels the weight of new challenges as he is forced to leave the past behind becoming responsible for those men under his leadership And the son will rise demonstrates a great truth that mateship is an anchor to the community of soldiers who share the goal of surviving and returning home

Gallipoli Sniper John Hamilton,2008-11-01 The Anzac battlefield on Gallipoli was made for snipers Scrub cliffs spurs and hills meant that both Anzac and Turkish positions often overlooked one another The unwary or unlucky were prey to snipers on both sides and the sudden crack of a gunshot and instant death were an ever present menace The most successful and most feared sniper of the Gallipoli campaign was Billy Sing a Light Horseman from Queensland who was almost unique among the Australian troops in having a Chinese born father A combination of patience stealth and an incredible eye made him utterly deadly with the incredible and horrifying figure of over 200 credited kills John Hamilton author of the bestselling Goodbye Cobber God Bless You has written an extraordinary account of a hidden side of the campaign the snipers war Following Sing from his recruitment onwards Hamilton takes us on a journey into the squalor dust blood and heroism of Gallipoli seen from the unique viewpoint of the sniper Gallipoli Sniper is a powerful and very different

Death, Gender and Sexuality in Contemporary Adolescent

Literature Kathryn James, 2009-02-10 Knowledge about carnality and its limits provides the agenda for much of the fiction written for adolescent readers today yet there exists little critical engagement with the ways in which it has been represented in the young adult novel in either discursive ideological or rhetorical forms Death Gender and Sexuality in Contemporary Adolescent Literature is a pioneering study that addresses these methodological and contextual gaps Focusing on texts produced since the late 1980s and drawing on a range of theoretical perspectives Kathryn James shows how representations of death in young adult literature are invariably associated with issues of sexuality gender and power Under particular scrutiny are the trope of woman death the eroticizing and sexualizing of death and the ways in which the gendered subject is represented in dialogue with the processes of death dying and grief Through close readings of historical literature fantasy fictions realistic novels dead narrator tales and texts from genres including Gothic horror and post disaster James reveals not only how cultural discourses influence and are influenced by literary works but how relevant the study of death is to adolescent fiction the literature of becoming

The Price of Valour John Hamilton, 2012-09-01

From the bestselling author of Goodbye Cobber God Bless You and Gallipoli Sniper In The Price of Valour award winning journalist John Hamilton gives us an extraordinary insight into the life of a real Australian hero Hugo Throssell From the bloody battles of The Nek and Hill 60 during the Gallipoli campaign where Throssell won a Victoria Cross to the Great Depression of the 1930s where his life came to its tragic end Hamilton has written a rich and vivid portrait of a fearless soldier a national hero a born again socialist a loving husband and father and finally a victim of the war's long and destructive aftermath Winner of the Nib Waverley Library Award for Literature People's Choice Award 2013 Australian Book Review, 2001 Gallipoli Victoria Cross Hero John Hamilton, 2020-01-24 The WWI biography of a Victory Cross recipient who fought bravely at Gallipoli only to be shunned after the war for speaking out against it The son of a former Premier of Western Australia Hugo Throssell volunteered to join the Imperial Australian Force during the Great War He was shipped to Gallipoli in 1915 with the 10th Australian Light Horse Regiment which fought in a dismounted role He was involved in the famous charge of the 10th Light Horse at the Battle of the Nek and the Battle of Hill 60 Throssell was severely wounded during the Battle of Hill 60 but refused to leave his post until the fighting was over As soon as his wounds were dressed he went back into the firing line until he was ordered to stand down by the Medical Officer His determination saved his battalion at a critical moment After the war Throssell became an outspoken opponent of war for which he was widely condemned It also made employment difficult and he fell into debt When he tried to pawn his Victoria Cross he was offered only ten shillings He committed suicide at forty nine Meticulously researched and beautifully written this is a moving tale of heroism and tragedy

Refashioning

Myth David McInnis, Eric Parisot, Jessica Wilkinson, 2020-05-15 Robert Graves tells us that the poet's first enrichment is a knowledge and understanding of myths Certainly as this collection of essays poems and visual images affirms mythology has been a field richly mined by poets and artists from antiquity through to the present day It is testament to both the enduring power of myth as well as the adaptability of its form that poets and writers continually turn to the mythic for both inspiration and guidance This volume presents a diverse collection of analytical and creative works by scholars poets and visual artists in response to their varied explorations of the prolific dialogue that exists between myth and poetry

Bush, City, Cyberspace John Foster, Ern Finniss, Maureen Nimmon, 2005-06-01 Aimed at academic professional and general readers Bush city cyberspace provides a snapshot of the state of Australian children s and adolescent literature in the early twenty first century and an insight into its history In doing so it promotes a sense of where Australian literature for young people may be going and captures a literary and critical mood with which readers in Australia and beyond will identify The title of the work is intended to capture the fact that the field has changed dramatically in the century and a half that Australian children s literature has existed from the bush myths and heroism that inform the past and the present through the recognition that the vast majority of authors and readers live in cities to the third wave of cyberliterature that incorporates multimedia hypertext weblinks and e books none of which lessens the enduring enthusiasm of practitioners and readers for books Bush city cyberspace is not meant to be an encyclopedic volume Rather well known recent and or award winning works have been emphasised with the addition of others where these help to illuminate particular points The book is similar in coverage and approach to Australian Children s Literature An Exploration of Genre and Theme written by the same three authors and published by the Centre for Information Studies in 1995 In the intervening period much has changed in the field notable examples including the blurring of the dividing line between quality and popular literature the blending of genres the rise of a truly indigenous literature the demise to a significant extent of Outbackery in fiction the acceptance of multiculturalism as the norm and the advent of the literature of cyberspace with new methods and the sheer speed of communication between writer and reader All these trends and others are reflected in this work
