has changed over the millennia human nature remains the same Modern societies are not immune from the horror of a war of extinction In The End of Everything military historian Victor Davis Hanson narrates a series of sieges and sackings that span the age of antiquity to the conquest of the New World to show how societies descend into barbarism and obliteration In the stories of Thebes Carthage Constantinople and Tenochtitlan he depicts war s drama violence and folly Highlighting the naivete that plagued the vanquished and the wrath that justified mass slaughter Hanson delivers a sobering call to contemporary readers to heed the lessons of obliteration lest we blunder into catastrophe once again
