Christopher Mihm, 2003-07 Executive performance mgmt systems link individual performance to organizational goals In Oct 2000 the OPM amended regulations to require agencies to link senior exec performance SEP with organizational goals to appraise SEP by balancing organizational results with customer satisfaction employee perspective and other areas and to use performance results as a basis for pay awards and other personnel decisions Agencies were to establish these performance mgmt systems

by their 2001 SEP appraisal cycles This report studied the BLM's FHA's IRS's and VA's use of balanced expectations to manage SEP in order to identify initial approaches that may be helpful to other agencies in holding SEP accountable for results

International Organizations and Democracy Thomas D. Zweifel, 2006 Zweifel's persuasive and highly relevant book is a significant contribution to the literature on IO governance Edward McMahon University of Vermont Do international organizations represent the interests of the global citizenry Or are they merely vehicles for the agendas of powerful nations and special interests Thomas Zweifel explores this increasingly contentious issue deftly blending history theory and case studies Zweifel's analysis covers both regional organizations e.g. the EU NAFTA NATO the AU and such global institutions as the United Nations the World Bank and the World Trade Organization With international organizations becoming perhaps the most appropriate if not the only forum for tackling myriad transnational challenges his systematic study of how these organizations function is central to the study of both international relations and democracy in the 21st century Thomas D. Zweifel CEO of the Swiss Consulting Group is also adjunct professor at Columbia University's School of International and Public Affairs Previously he served as director of global operations for the Hunger Project
