for professionals on the expanding field of panoramic photography is now updated to include information on the latest cameras and equipment Shooting techniques are demonstrated with full color photos Exposing the Wilderness Robert Bogdan, 1999-10-01 Robert Bogdan combines a richly descriptive text with striking illustrations to create vivid biographical sketches of these pioneer photographers who worked their individual styles to illuminate six different regions of the Adirondack Mountains The book also provides insight into the popular culture of the times mainly through postcards but it also takes an in depth look at the families and work lives of these artisans as they plied their trade in the popular venue of commercial postcards Aside from the Adirondack locals and a few postcard connoisseurs the gifted folk artists and craftspeople profiled here were virtually unknown until now Bogdan has collected nearly 250 illustrations including postcards and photographs depicting Adirondack life of the time Many of these images have never before been published

American Exposures Louis Kaplan, 2005 American Exposures sheds light on photographs from Arthur Mole's propagandistic living photographs of American icons and symbols to the exploration of contemporary subcultural communities by the Korean born photographer and performance artist Nikki Lee and asserts that the depiction of community is a central component to photography Louis Kaplan deploys a number of critical concepts and theories developed by Jean Luc Nancy in The Inoperative Community as well as other philosophers and applies them to the field of photography studies With an original approach to photography from Edward Steichen's Family of Man exhibition to Pedro Meyer and the rise of the digital image Kaplan points to a new way to think about the intimate relationship among photography American life and the artistic imagination Back cover
