The Passion In Art Ashgate Studies In Theology Imagination And The Arts:

The Passion in Art Richard Harries, 2019-07-23 Jesus was not depicted on the cross until the early fifth century Since then this scene has been painted or carved in sharply differing ways With the aid of over thirty full page plates The Passion in Art explores the historical contexts and theologies that led to such differing depictions Because the first Christians saw the Crucifixion and Resurrection of Jesus as different aspects of a unified victory over sin and death scenes of the Passion are juxtaposed with some of the Resurrection which again are highly varied in what they do and do not show This is the first book to consider the Passion as portrayed in the whole sweep of Christian history Each picture is considered both from the point of view of its context and its theological standpoint Spanning the centuries the images reproduced and discussed include scenes from the Passion of Christ in the Catacombs of Domitilla mosaics in Ravenna the Rabbula Crucifixion and Resurrection the Crucifixion Plaque from Metz the Gero Crucifix Cimabue's Crucifix Giotto's Noli me Tangere Piero della Francesca's Resurrection the Isenheim altarpiece Caravaggio's Supper at Emmaus Rembrandt's Christ on the Cross Chagall's White Crucifixion contemporary paintings by Stanley Spencer Graham Sutherland Nicholas Mynheer and many more works of great acclaim

Theological Aesthetics after von Balthasar Dr James Fodor, Dr Oleg V Bychkov, 2013-05-28 This collection of essays by distinguished authors explores the present day field of theological aesthetics from von Balthasar's contribution and parallel developments to correctives and alternatives to his approach A tribute to von Balthasar's own project expands into a dialogue with ancient and medieval traditions in search of revelatory aesthetics The contributors outline challenges to his approach including Protestant perspectives and introduce new ways of viewing the field of theological aesthetics which ultimately opens up to the idea of concrete cultural contexts and practical human needs determining the use of the arts and aesthetic sensibilities in theology

In the Beauty of Holiness David Lyle Jeffrey, 2017 Art and worship to 1500 Beauty and holiness as terms of art The paradoxical beauty of the cross Beauty and proportion in the sanctuary The beauty of light The beauty of holiness fresco Beauty on the altar Art and the Bible after 1500 Beauty power and doctrine Beauty and the eye of the beholder Romantic religion and the sublime Art after belief Art against belief Return of the transcendentals

Baptized Imagination Kerry Dearborn, 2016-04-15 The imagination has been called the principal organ for knowing and responding to disclosures of transcendent truth This book probes the theological sources of the imagination which make it a vital tool for knowing and responding to such disclosures Kerry Dearborn approaches areas of theology and imagination through a focus on the nineteenth century theologian and writer George MacDonald MacDonald can be seen as an icon whose life and work open a window to the intersection of word flesh and image He communicated the gospel through narrative and image rich forms which honour truth and address the intellectual imaginative spiritual and emotional needs of his readers MacDonald was also able to speak prophetically in a number of areas of contemporary concern such as the nature of suffering aging and death environmental degradation moral imagination and gender issues Dearborn explores influences which shaped him along with the wisdom he has offered in the formation of significant Christian writers in both the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Authors such as C S Lewis, G K Chesterton, Dorothy Sayers, J R R Tolkien, W H Auden, Frederick Buechner, and others attribute to MacDonald key paradigm shifts and insights in their own lives. A study of MacDonald does not offer a formulaic approach to theology and the imagination but the possibility of gleaning from his rich harvest relevant nourishment for our own day. It also provides a context in which to assess potential weaknesses in imaginative approaches to theology.

Atonement as Gift Katie M Heffelfinger, Patrick G McGlinchey, 2014-06-01. Atonement as Gift: Reimagining the Cross for the Church and the World grows out of the conviction that the doctrine of the atonement has wide reaching practical implications for some of the deepest pastoral and theological questions individuals and communities face today. It asks the question: What difference does the atonement make for ecumenics, pastoral care, theodicy, gender, ecology, and social division? The answers given by experts in their fields point to the potential of the doctrine to renew Christian theology and spirituality. This unique book is designed not only to offer the insights of these theologians but also to guide readers to engage the issue for themselves and to integrate the doctrine into their own theological reflection.

Contents: 1. Stephen Williams: The Atonement Today: The State of Current Discussion. 2. Vincent Twomey and Stephen Williams: The Cross and Our Aspiration for a Common Doctrine of Redemption followed by questions for discussion groups. 3. Ron Elsdon: The Cross and the Redemption of the Cosmos. 4. Elaine Storkey: The Cross and the Reconciliation of Gender followed by a creative writing workshop exercise. 5. David Tombs: The Cross and the Reconciliation of Enemies. 6. Richard Bauckham: The Cross and God's Embrace of Suffering followed by an exegetically driven exercise examining lament texts. 7. Robin Stockitt: The Cross and Our Captivity to Shame followed by resources for conducting a bibliodrama workshop. 8. Heather Morris: The Cross and the Healing of the Self followed by the description of a prayer ministry clinic related to the themes of the chapter. 9. Katie M Heffelfinger and Patrick G McGlinchey: Responses. 10. Conclusion.

When Did we See You Naked? Jayme R. Reaves, David Tombs, Rocio Figueroa, 2021-03-31. Was the stripping and exposure of Jesus a form of sexual abuse? If so, why does such a reading of Jesus suffering matter? The combined impact of the MeToo movement and a further wave of global revelations on church sexual abuse have given renewed significance to recent work naming Jesus as a victim of sexual abuse. Timely and provocative, When did we see you naked? presents the arguments for reading Christ as an abuse victim as well as exploring how the position might be critiqued and what implications and applications it might offer to the Church.

Faithful Performances Steven R. Guthrie, 2016-04-15. The metaphor of performance has been applied fruitfully by anthropologists and other social theorists to different aspects of human social existence and furnishes a potentially helpful model in terms of which to think theologically about Christian life. After an introductory editorial chapter reflecting on the nature of artistic performance and its relationship to the notions of tradition and identity, Part One of this book attends specifically to the phenomenon of dramatic performance and possible theological applications of it. Part Two considers various aspects of the performance of Christian identity looking at worship the interpretation of the Bible Christian response to elements in the contemporary media the shape of Christian moral life and ending with a theological reflection on the shape of personal identity correlating it with the theatrical metaphors of character and performing a part in a scripted drama Part Three demonstrates how art forms including some technically non performative ones literature poetry painting may constitute faithful Christian practices in which the tradition is authentically performed producing works which break open its meaning in profound new ways for a constantly shifting context

Flourishing in Tensions Michael Bräutigam, 2022-09-09 Following Jesus Christ presents unique challenges to disciples today In our current climate of relativism materialism and consumerism Christians are increasingly perplexed as to who they are and what following after Christ means today Drawing on the Protestant tradition in particular Dietrich Bonhoeffer Martin Luther and Adolf Schlatter and findings from psychology this book offers a fresh integrative interpretation of Jesus s radical call into discipleship This call is interpreted through a christological lens as Jesus Christ in his role as Prophet calls us to self denial in his role as Priest invites us to cross bearing and as King demands us to follow him Jesus s call to discipleship challenges disciples to embrace various tensions by faith and to grow and even flourish in and through them By denying themselves they find their true self by taking up their cross they find real life and by following Christ they find the great friend and befriend the world as the community of disciples This book is for Christians who seek to mature in intentional self reflection and discover practical ways of living out Christ s radical call into discipleship today Redeeming Beauty Fr Aidan Nichols O P, 2013-05-28 Redeeming Beauty explores the richness of orthodox Christian tradition both Western and Eastern in matters of sacral aesthetics a term used to denote the foundations production and experience of religiously relevant beauty Aidan Nichols investigates five principal themes the foundation of beauty in the natural order through divine creative action explicitly evangelical beauty as a quality of biblical revelation and notably at its climax in Christ the legitimacy of making and venerating artworks qualities of the self in relation to objective presentation of the religiously beautiful and the difficulties of practising a sacral aesthetic whether as producer or consumer in an epoch when the visual arts themselves have left behind not only Church but for the greater part the public as well The thought of theologians such as Augustine Aquinas Balthasar Ratzinger Bulgakov Maritain and others is explored Memento Mori in Contemporary Art Taylor Worley, 2019-11-28 This book explores how four contemporary artists Francis Bacon Joseph Beuys Robert Gober and Damien Hirst pursue the question of death through their fraught appropriations of Christian imagery Each artist is shown to not only pose provocative theological questions but also to question the abilities of theological speech to adequately address current attitudes to death When set within a broader theological context around the thought of death Bacon s works invite fresh readings of the New Testament s narration of the betrayal of Christ and Beuys works can be appreciated for the ways they evoke Resurrection to envision possible futures for Germany in the aftermath of war Gober s immaculate sculptures and installations serve to create alternative religious environments and these places are both evocative of his

Roman Catholic upbringing and virtually haunted by the ghosts of his excommunication from that past Lastly and perhaps most problematically Hirst has built his brand as an artist from making jokes about death By opening fresh arenas of dialogue and meaning making in our society and culture today the rich humanity of these artworks promises both renewed depths of meaning regarding our exit from this world as well as how we might live well within it for the time that we have As such it will be a vital resource for all scholars in Theology the Visual Arts Material Religion and Religious Studies
