The Passion Of The Lamb The Self Giving Love Of Jesus:

Personal Prayer: A Guide for Receiving the Father's Love Fr. Thomas Acklin, OSB, Fr. Boniface Hicks, OSB, 2020-02-01 Prayer is at the heart of the Christian life. Given that we are weak and even sinful human beings, how can it be that God has anything to do with us? What does it mean to have a personal relationship with God? Why is God so silent and hidden? How do we grow in prayer? Personal Prayer: A Guide for Receiving the Father's Love brings the depth of human experience together with the Catholic tradition of prayer to present the path to an intimate and vulnerable relationship with God. Experienced spiritual directors Fr. Thomas Acklin, OSB, and Fr. Boniface Hicks, OSB, explore the many forms of Catholic prayer and demonstrate that vulnerability is essential to growing in relationship with God. Rich with the wisdom of Scripture, Catholic teaching, and the writings of the saints, Personal Prayer is an exhaustive guide for priests, religious, and laity desiring to receive the Father's love in a profoundly personal way.

A More Christlike God Bradley Jersak, 2015-09-01 Whether our notions of God are personal projections or inherited traditions, author and theologian Brad Jersak proposes a radical reassessment, arguing for a More Christlike God, a More Beautiful Gospel. If Christ is the image of the invisible God, the radiance of God's glory and exact representation of God's likeness, what if we conceived of God as completely Christlike, the perfect Incarnation of self-giving, radically forgiving, co-suffering love? What if God has always been and forever will be cruciform, cross-shaped in his character and actions? A More Christlike God suggests that such a God would be very good news indeed: a God who Jesus unwrathes from dead religion, a Love that is always toward us, and a Grace that pours into this suffering world through willing human partners.

Sacrifice and Spirit Michael Ramsey, 2005-03-11 Fairacres Publications 147 This book contains two short papers: "The Christian Concept of Sacrifice" read to the Anselm Society in Canterbury and "The Paraclete," a talk given to the Sisters of the Love of God in Oxford. Bishop Michael Ramsey's spiritual stature, his scholarly immersion in the Bible, and his gift for conveying deep theological truths with clarity and simplicity are all manifested in these papers.

The Light Shines on in the Darkness Fr. Robert J. Spitzer, S.J., Ph.D., 2017-04-10 Why would an all-loving God allow suffering? Aren't suffering and love opposed to one another? Does suffering have any benefit for this life? Does it have any benefit for eternal life? Is there any objective evidence for God for a soul that will survive bodily death for the resurrection of Jesus? If there is testable objective evidence for a resurrection, what is this resurrection like? Who is God anyway: benevolent and loving or angry and retributive? Father Spitzer gives a comprehensive explanation of contemporary evidence for God, the soul, and the resurrection, and helps us understand how God uses suffering to lead us to the resurrection and to compassion for others. He also shows how the Holy Spirit guides us through times of suffering toward our salvation and others' salvation, explaining the signs and interior movements that reveal the Spirit's actions. But even armed with this eternal perspective, serious questions remain: If God has power over nature, why doesn't He just perform a lot more miracles when we pray for them so that we won't have to suffer? Why did God make the natural world imperfect in the first place? Wouldn't it have been better to create us in a world without suffering without challenge, need, and self-sacrifice? Father Spitzer not only addresses the perplexing questions associated with suffering but he teaches us how to suffer well. He points out some of the most common errors we make in interpreting God's motives for and alleviation of suffering. He explains why suffering in combination with love is one of the most powerful motivating agents for personal, cultural, and societal development. Suffering and love are inextricably bound up with one another on the highest levels of human meaning.

In Season and Out David A. deSilva, 2019-09-18 Grow in the Scriptures throughout the church year with David deSilva as your mentor. Beginning with Advent and moving through the church year, David deSilva brings his years of experience as a biblical scholar to the church in the form of sermons delivered to his home congregation throughout the church year, now adapted into a thoughtful and inspiring collection of reflections. These reflections, which draw on readings from the Revised Common Lectionary, will inform and inspire your understanding of Scripture. Written with Dr. deSilva's characteristic warmth and wisdom, In Season and Out makes for excellent devotional reading that will feed saints both in front of and behind the pulpit.

Mel Gibson's Passion and Philosophy Jorge J. E. Gracia, 2004 Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ has become one of the most controversial films ever made, and it is already a blockbuster of cinematography. Its defenders passionately regard it as one of the most moving and influential pieces of religious art ever created. But its detractors argue with comparable vehemence that the violence and gore it contains, its alleged anti-Semitism, a particular take on the Christian message, and the lack of historical and biblical accuracy make it nothing more than a kind of political propaganda. Father Thomas Rosica hailed it as one of the great masterpieces of religious art, but the secular humanist Paul Kurtz thinks of it as a political weapon in the hands of the religious right. Film critics are divided in their judgment, giving the film anywhere from no stars to five stars. Regardless of what one thinks of the film, however, its impact, both personal and social, is beyond question.
