The Paul Street Boys:

The Paul Street Boys Ferenc Molnár, 1927 Hungarian Cinema John Cunningham, 2004 Hungarian cinema has often been forced to tread a precarious and difficult path Through the failed 1919 revolution to the defeat of the 1956 Uprising and its aftermath Hungarian film makers and their audiences have had to contend with a multiplicity of problems In the 1960s however Hungary entered into a period of relative stability and increasing cultural relaxation resulting in an astonishing growth of film making Innovative and groundbreaking directors such as Mikl s Jancs Hungarian Rhapsody The Red and the White Istv n Szab Mephisto Sunshine and M rta M szaros Little Vilma The Last Diary emerged and established the reputation of Hungarian films on a global basis This is the first book to discuss all major aspects of Hungarian cinema including avant garde animation and representations of the Gypsy and Jewish minorities The Paul Street Boys ,2007 No Greater Glory Ferenc Molnár, 1927 The Boys of Paul Street Ferenc Molnar, 2017-11-28 The American Hebrew ,1927

Urban Culture and the Modern City Ágnes Györke, Tamás Juhász, 2024-03-15 When consulting key works on urban studies the absence of Central and Eastern European towns is striking Cities such as Vienna Budapest Prague and Trieste where such notable figures as Freud Ferenczi Kafka and Joyce lived and worked are rarely studied in a translocal framework as if Central and Eastern Europe were still a blind spot of European modernity This volume expands the scope of literary urban studies by focusing on Budapest and Hungarian small towns offering in depth analyses of the intriguing link between literature the arts and material culture in the 20th and 21st centuries The case studies situate Hungarian urban culture within the global flow of ideas as they explore the period of modernism the mid century and the post 1989 era in a context that moves well beyond the borders of the country The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available The Routledge History Handbook of Central and Eastern Europe in the Twentieth Century Włodzimierz Borodziej, Ferenc Laczó, Joachim von Puttkamer, 2020-08-02 Intellectual Horizons offers a pioneering transnational and comparative treatment of key thematic areas in the intellectual and cultural history of Central and Eastern Europe in the twentieth century For most of the twentieth century Central and Eastern European ideas and cultures constituted an integral part of wider European trends However the intellectual and cultural history of this diverse region has rarely been incorporated sufficiently into nominally comprehensive histories of Europe This volume redresses this underrepresentation and provides a more balanced perspective on the recent past of the continent through original critical overviews of themes ranging from the social and conceptual history of intellectuals and histories of political thought and historiography to literary visual and religious cultures to perceptions and representations of the region in the twentieth century While structured thematically individual contributions are organized chronologically They emphasize where relevant generational experiences agendas and accomplishments while taking into account the sharp ruptures that characterize the period The third in a four volume set on Central and Eastern Europe in the twentieth century it is the go to resource for understanding the intellectual and cultural history of this dynamic region The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, Volume 7 Israel Bartal, Kenneth B. Moss, 2024-01-05 Volume 7 of the Posen Library captures unprecedented transformations of Jewish culture amid mass migration global capitalism nationalism revolution and the birth of the secular self Between 1880 and 1918 traditions and regimes collapsed around the world migration and imperialism remade the lives of millions nationalism and secularization transformed selves and collectives utopias beckoned and new kinds of social conflict threatened as never before Few communities experienced the pressures and possibilities of the era more profoundly than the world s Jews This volume seventh in The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization recaptures the vibrant Jewish cultural creativity political striving social experimentation and fractious religious and secular thought that burst forth in the face of these challenges Editors Israel Bartal and Kenneth B Moss capture the full range of Jewish expression in a centrifugal age from mystical visions to unabashedly antitraditional Jewish political thought from cookbooks to literary criticism from modernist poetry to vaudeville They also highlight the most remarkable dimension of the 1880 1918 era an audacious effort by newly secular Jews to replace Judaism itself with a new kind of Jewish culture centering on this worldly aesthetic creativity by a posited Jewish nation and the secular modern and free individuals who composed it This volume is an essential starting point for anyone who wishes to understand the divided Jewish present
