Claiming Space for Australian Women's Writing Devaleena Das, Sanjukta Dasgupta, 2017-06-29 This volume explores the subterfuges strategies and choices that Australian women writers have navigated in order to challenge patriarchal stereotypes and assert themselves as writers of substance Contextualized within the pioneering efforts of white Aboriginal and immigrant Australian women in initiating an alternative literary tradition the text captures a wide range of multiracial Australian women authors insightful reflections on crucial issues such as war and silent mourning emergence of a Australian national heroine racial purity and Aboriginal motherhood communism and activism feminist rivalry sexual transgressions autobiography and art of letter writing city space and female subjectivity lesbianism gender implications of spatial categories placement and displacement dwelling and travel location and dislocation and female body politics Claiming Space for Australian Women's Writing tracks Australian women authors varied journeys across cultural political and racial borders in the center of contemporary political discourse The Routledge Companion to Australian Literature Jessica Gildersleeve, 2020-12-22 In recent years Australian literature has experienced a revival of interest both domestically and internationally The increasing prominence of work by writers like Christos Tsiolkas heightened through television and film adaptation as well as the award of major international prizes to writers like Richard Flanagan and the development of new high profile prizes like the Stella Prize have all reinvigorated interest in Australian literature both at home and abroad This Companion emerges as a part of that reinvigoration considering anew the history and development of Australian literature and its key themes as well as tracing the transition of the field through those critical debates It considers works of Australian literature on their own terms as well as positioning them in their critical and historical context and their ethical and interactive position in the public and private spheres With an emphasis on literature's responsibilities this book claims Australian literary studies as a field uniquely positioned to expose the ways in which literature engages with produces and is produced by its context provoking a critical re evaluation of the concept of the relationship between national literatures cultures and histories and the social function of literary texts Australian Books National Library of Australia, 1988 Our Australian Theatre in the 1990s Veronica Kelly, 1998 AUSTRALIAN THEATRE in the 1990s is a vigorous enterprise displaying the energies and contradictions of a multicultural society This collection of essays by leading scholars of Australian theatre and drama surveys the emergence and directions of the new theatrical energies which have challenged or redefined the Australian mainstream Aboriginal multicultural Asian Australian women's gay and lesbian community and young people's theatre and charts the exciting growth of physical theatre The contributors assess the impact of evolving funding and industrial priorities and examine the theoretical and cultural debates surrounding Australian playwriting and theatre making from the 1970s Vietnam dramas to the postmodern present Australian Books, 1989 Writing Women's History Karen M. Offen, Ruth Roach Pierson, Jane Rendall, 1991-08-23 Five essays address such themes as the relationship between

feminist history and women's history the use of the concept of experience the development of the history of gender demographic history and women's history and the importance of post structuralism to women's history Gender Relations in Australia Kay Saunders, Raymond Evans, 1992 Presents a range of interpretations by 24 academics of Australian gender relations from pre 1788 to the present Essays by contributors such as Jocelynne Scutt Marian Aveliny and Ann Curthoys explore themes of race class family life and social conflict Contains references and an index The editors are readers in history at the University of Queensland Women Writing Greece Vassiliki Kolocotroni, 2008 Women Writing Greece explores images of modern Greece by women who experienced the country as travellers writers and scholars or who journeyed there through the imagination The essays assembled here consider women's travel narratives memoirs and novels ranging from the eighteenth to the late twentieth century focusing on the role of gender in travel and cross cultural mediation and challenging stereotypical views of the Greek journey traditionally seen as an antiquarian or Byronic pursuit This collection aims to cast new light on women's participation in the discourses of Hellenism and Orientalism examining their ideological rendering of Greece as at once a luminous land and a site crossed by contradictory cultural memories Arranged chronologically the essays discuss encounters with Greece by among others Lady Elizabeth Craven Lady Hester Stanhope Lady Montagu Lady Morgan Mary Shelley Felicia Skene Emily Pfeiffer Eva Palmer Jane Ellen Harrison Virginia Woolf Ethel Smyth Christa Wolf Penelope Storey and Gillian Bouras and analyse them through a variety of critical historical contextual and theoretical frames The Short Story Anthology and Women's Writing Aleix Tura Vecino, 2025-08-14 Hundreds of anthologies of women's short stories have appeared in the literary market between the 1970s and now This publishing and cultural phenomenon is considered for the first time in this book which argues that during this period anthologies have become a literary technology used not only to make visible female short story writers but also to think about and mould ideas of womanhood Through creative and contextualised readings of the most important anthologies produced in this period this study shows that this literary form has contributed to and in some cases pioneered key developments in gender theory and feminist thought including questions of political combination among women which underlie contemporary global movements such as MeToo In doing so the book also develops the first book length conceptualisation of the features and meaning making mechanisms of the short story anthology as a literary form This book will benefit academics and students working in the fields of short fiction publishing and women's studies as well as feminist scholars and a growing number of specialists interested in the anthology as a literary form worldwide De-Scribing Empire Alan Lawson, Chris Tiffin, 2002-03-11 De-Scribing Empire is a stunning collection of first class essays Collectively they examine the formative role of books writing and textuality in imperial control and the fashioning of colonial world views The volume as a whole puts forward strategies for understanding and neutralising that control and as such is a major contribution to the field It will be invaluable for students in post colonialist criticism
