The Peoples City African Life In 20thcentury Durban:

The People's City Paul Maylam, Iain Edwards, 1996 A lively collection of essays on all aspects of African life in the city of Durban during the twentieth century including everything from crowds and violence to beer brewing rickshaw pulling and Black popular music Case histories of three particular African locations complement more familiar studies of workers and trade union organization and political history A marvelous photographic essay of historical Durban is included

The Ghetto in Global History Wendy Z. Goldman, Joe William Trotter, Jr., 2017-11-27 The Ghetto in Global History explores the stubborn tenacity of the ghetto over time As a concept policy and experience the ghetto has served to maintain social religious and racial hierarchies over the past five centuries Transnational in scope this book allows readers to draw thought provoking comparisons across time and space among ghettos that are not usually studied alongside one another The volume is structured around four main case studies covering the first ghettos created for Jews in early modern Europe the Nazis use of ghettos the enclosure of African Americans in segregated areas in the United States and the extreme segregation of blacks in South Africa The contributors explore issues of discourse power and control examine the internal structures of authority that prevailed and document the lived experiences of ghetto inhabitants By discussing ghettos as both tools of control and as sites of resistance this book offers an unprecedented and fascinating range of interpretations of the meanings of the ghetto throughout history It allows us to trace the circulation of the idea and practice over time and across continents revealing new linkages between widely disparate settings Geographically and chronologically wide ranging The Ghetto in Global History will prove indispensable reading for all those interested in the history of spatial segregation power dynamics and racial and religious relations across the globe

Durban Dialogues Dissected Felicity Hand, 2021-01-26 This volume provides an in depth analysis of the work of Indian South African playwright Ashwin Singh which through the diversity of characters from all ethnic backgrounds forges an inclusive South African identity The essays in this volume show how Singh's plays bring South Africa's blatant prejudices and social ills to the forefront as only by confronting unpleasant realities can any far reaching changes actually take place The academics and cultural practitioners who have contributed to this volume approach Singh's work from a variety of angles ranging from history psychology and experimental literary forms to the performance of the plays the relevance of the stage directions and the symbiotic relationship between the playwright and the director The contrast between the climate of optimistic political protest and the complacency and disillusion of the new democratic era is seen to reassess the actions of the past in the light of present outcomes

The Emergence of the South African Metropolis Vivian Bickford-Smith, 2016-05-16 Focusing on South Africa's three main cities Johannesburg Cape Town and Durban this book explores South African urban history from the late nineteenth century onwards In particular it examines the metropolitan perceptions and experiences of both black and white South Africans as well as those of visitors especially visitors from Britain and North America Drawing on a rich array of city histories travel writing novels films newspapers radio and television programs and oral histories Vivian Bickford Smith focuses on the consequences of the depictions of the South African metropolis and the slums they contained and especially on how senses of urban belonging and geography helped create and reinforce South African ethnicities and nationalisms This ambitious and pioneering account spanning more than a century will be welcomed by scholars and students of African history urban history and historical geography Welcome to Greater Edendale Marc Epprecht, 2016-11-01 A mid sized South African city's struggle against its legacies of environmental injustice The ANC's Early Years Peter Limb, 2024-12-02 The African National Congress ANC is the oldest and most durable of African nationalist movements not only in South Africa but also across the continent Since 1994 it has governed the country as leader of the Tripartite Alliance with the Congress of South African Trade Unions Cosatu and South African Communist Party SACP The early decades of the twentieth century saw the establishment survival and growth of ANC and black labour organisations This book focuses on the formative period of engagement of these political and socioeconomic forces before permanent alliances emerged It analyses the ANC's attitudes and relationships with the nascent formations of the black working class with particular attention to the most conscious and active workers The subject matter in this book also discusses migrant rural domestic and women workers not always then clearly defined as part of a formal working class Print editions not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa This book is part of Routledge's co published series 30 Years of Democracy in South Africa in collaboration with UNISA Press which reflects on the past years of a democratic South Africa and assesses the future opportunities and challenges On Durban's Docks Ralph Callebort, 2017 Offers a new approach to the study of labor on the subcontinent and globally questioning the relevance of the predominant wage labor paradigm for Africa and the Global South On Durban's Docks focuses on dock labor in early apartheid Durban South Africa's main port city and a crucial node in the trade and communication networks of the Indian Ocean and the British Empire Although the labor of Zulu migrant dock workers made global trade possible they lived their lives largely in isolation both socially and economically from these global networks Using seventy seven oral histories and extensive archival research Ralph Callebort examines the working and living conditions of Durban's dock workers and the livelihoods of their rural households These households relied on a combination of wage labor pilferage informal trade and the rural economy Dock workers experiences were thus more intricate than a focus on wage labor alone could capture Foregrounding such multifaceted livelihoods Callebort considers the dynamics of gender within dock workers households as well as their complicated political identities including their economic nationalism and fervent anti Indian sentiments On Durban's Docks thus offers a new approach to the study of labor on the subcontinent and globally questioning the relevance of the predominant wage labor paradigm for Africa and for the Global South Ralph Callebort teaches history at the University of Toronto African Perspectives of King Dingane kaSenzangakhona Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, 2017-08-06 This book examines the active role played by Africans in the pre colonial production of historical knowledge in South Africa focusing on perspectives of the second king of amaZulu King

Dingane It draws upon a wealth of oral traditions izibongo and the work of public intellectuals such as Magolwane kaMkhathini Jiyane and Mshongweni to present African perspectives of King Dingane as multifaceted and in some cases constructed according to socio political formations and aimed at particular audiences By bringing African perspectives to the fore this innovative historiography centralizes indigenous African languages in the production of historical knowledge

Street Life under a Roof Emily Margaretten, 2015-09-15 Point Place stands near the city center of Durban South Africa Condemned and off the grid the five story apartment building is nonetheless home to a hundred plus teenagers and young adults marginalized by poverty and chronic unemployment In Street Life under a Roof Emily Margaretten draws on ten years of up close fieldwork to explore the distinct cultural universe of the Point Place community Margaretten s sensitive investigations reveal how young men and women draw on customary notions of respect and support to forge an ethos of connection and care that allows them to live far richer lives than ordinarily assumed Her discussion of gender dynamics highlights terms like nakana to care about or take notice of another that young women and men use to construct outside and inside boyfriends and girlfriends and to communicate notions of trust Margaretten exposes the structures of inequality at a local regional and global level that contribute to socioeconomic and political dislocation But she also challenges the idea that Point Place s marginalized residents need rehabilitation As she argues these young men and women want love secure homes and the means to provide for their dependents in short the same hopes and aspirations mirrored across South African society

The Man of Heaven and the Beautiful Ones of God Elizabeth Gunner, 2021-11-08 The role of Africans in the growth and process of Christianity in South Africa in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century In particular the book provides an insight into the role of writing and literacy in the church founded by the South African prophet Isaiah Shembe in 1910 The book provides a substantial contextualising introduction which includes discussion of the church s history and its position in contemporary South Africa and weaves in discussion of the topics of literacy and modernity The book then moves to the three documents presented in their language of composition Zulu and in an English translation The three books each from Shembe s Nazareth Baptist Church provide the reader with a fascinating insight into the growth and organisation of one of southern Africa s most influential African Churches and into the use and interpretation of the Bible by the church s founder Isaiah Shembe and by church members Central to the writings is the complex presence of Shembe present both through his own words in the first book and in the second book through the memory of Meshack Hadebe a member of the church in the 1920 s and 1930 s The extracts in the third book provide a glimpse of the church s hymnal and the unique religious poetry of the hymns authored by Shembe

The Top Books of the Year The Peoples City African Life In 20thcentury Durban The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Peoples City African Life In 20thcentury Durban : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. The Peoples City African Life In 20thcentury Durban : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. The Peoples City African Life In 20thcentury Durban : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
