Vicki Le N, author of Uppity Women of Ancient Times The History of the Science-fiction Magazine Michael Ashley, 2000. This third volume in Mike Ashley's four volume study of the science fiction magazines focuses on the turbulent years of the 1970s when the United States emerged from the Vietnam War into an economic crisis. It saw the end of the Apollo moon programme and the start of the ecology movement. This proved to be one of the most complicated periods for the science fiction magazines. Not only were they struggling to survive within the economic climate they also had to cope with the death of the father of modern science fiction, John W. Campbell Jr, while facing new and potentially threatening opposition. The market for science fiction diversified as never before with the growth in new anthologies, the emergence of semi professional magazines, the explosion of science fiction in college, the start of role playing, gaming magazines, underground and adult comics and with the success of Star Wars media magazines. This volume explores how the traditional science fiction magazines coped with this, from the death of Campbell to the start of the major popular science magazine Omni and the first dreams of the Internet.

The Feminine Eye Tom Staicar, 1982. Sex, satire, feminism and beyond: these are some of the themes examined here in provocative essays by experts in science fiction, both men and women. Writing especially for this volume, they explore the special feminine approach to SF that has created an impressive body of work, including the prize winning novels of recent years by such writers as Joan D. Vinge and Suzy McKee Charnas. Publisher's description.

An Informal History of the Hugos Jo Walton, 2018-08-07. Engaged, passionate and consistently entertaining, An Informal History of the Hugos is a book about the renowned science fiction award for the many who enjoyed Jo Walton's previous collection of writing from Tor.com, the Locus Award winning What Makes This Book So Great. The Hugo Awards, named after pioneer science fiction publisher Hugo Gernsback and voted on by members of the World Science Fiction Society, have been presented since 1953. They are widely considered the most prestigious awards in science fiction. Between 2010 and 2013 Jo Walton wrote a series of posts for Tor.com surveying the Hugo finalists and winners from the award's inception up to the year 2000. Her contention was that each year's full set of finalists generally tells a meaningful story about the state of science fiction at that time Walton's cheerfully opinionated and vastly well informed posts provoked valuable conversation among the field's historians. Now these posts lightly revised have been gathered into this book along with a small selection of the comments posted by SF luminaries such as Rich Horton, Gardner Dozois, and David G. Hartwell. A remarkable guided tour through the field, a kind of nonfiction companion to Among Others. It's very good. It's great. New York Times bestselling author Cory Doctorow Boing Boing on What Makes This Book So Great The Future of the Space Program ; Large Corporations & Society Jeffrey M. Elliot, 1981-01-01. The editor posed two questions regarding the future of the space program and large corporations and society to 22 science fiction writers: Poul Anderson, Mildred Downey Broxon, Octavia E. Butler, C. J. Cherryh, Gordon R. Dickson, Raymond Z. Gallun, James Gunn, Isidore Haiblum, James P. Hogan, Robert A. W. Lowndes, Richard A. Lupoff, Larry Niven, Charles Sheffield, Robert Silverberg, Jack Vance, A. E. van Vogt, John Varley, Joan D. Vinge, Jack Williamson, Robert Anton Wilson, Chelsea Quinn Yarbro, and Roger Zelazny. Their answers were and are fascinating, informative, and entertaining.
