The Past We See Today:

The Civilizing Process and the Past We Now Abhor Bruce Fleming, 2022-04-19 Drawing on the thought of Norbert Elias and using as a thread a purposely apolitical example of cruelty to animals to focus on changes in attitudes this book explores the ways in which we deal with a past that we now abhor As we struggle to deal with the fact that our past shapes us indeed is us but is not us and cannot be changed the modern tendency is to demand merely cosmetic rather than real changes to the world and to judge harshly the individuals with whom the past is populated pulling down statues or re naming institutions An examination of our modern colonialism of time rather than place which refuses to consider or accept the fact that without our past we wouldn't be here at all let alone in a position to judge The Civilizing Process and the Past We Now Abhor will appeal to scholars and students of sociology cultural studies and literature with interests in contemporary questions of race morality and efforts to correct the wrongs of our past
