Soft Kristen Mae, 2019-05-10 She's ironed in every sense of the word from her slick golden hair to her white button down and prim A line skirt The woman across the restaurant counter has flint gray eyes chiseled planes for cheeks and dark hair cut like a boy's A key is tattooed on her forearm The energy between them is the same every time electric and undeniable Painful But there's nothing to be done about it A delicate gold cross hangs heavy around her neck an ever present reminder of her husband's edicts on what constitutes sin A reminder of her obligation to purity obedience and conformity A reminder that she must always follow the rules But today she will defy life's rules Today a gray eyed angel will unlock the door to all the things she hides from herself to a world she's always seen as inaccessible forbidden Today she will discover paradise

Soft Ferdinand Mount, 2025-09-11 An erudite immensely entertaining book Mount makes for a delightful guide Literary Review A sweeping tour of emotion and culture that spans centuries from renowned author and essayist Ferdinand Mount Whatever we think we feel you can be sure that the past has had a part to play in it In Soft Ferdinand Mount tells the millennium long history of emotion through vivid snapshots masterly storytelling and strange and wonderful historical anecdotes Revealing all the weird and wonderful ways people in the past expressed their grief and joy Mount explores the shifting importance societies have placed on empathy for the misfortunes of others Each seismic moment Mount argues from the French Revolution to Civil Rights has had a corresponding sentimental revolution that has fuelled great political turning points and come to define human civilization But during this long history powerful feelings have frequently come under attack No one wants to be accused of being sentimental its detractors call it soppy effeminate and populist the stuff of soap operas and pop songs The Reformation tried to stamp out excessive emotion the Victorians resolutely maintained their stiff upper lips and no one loathed sentimentality more than the modernists and yet today Mount argues it is not the stoics who are ruling the roost we are living in an age of emotion From the Occitan poets of the 12th century to Paul McCartney songs and modern debates around woke this is a witty insight into the story of emotions and the way they have swayed human history

Hard Cop, Soft Cop Roger Hopkins Burke,2013-01-11 This is a book about policing styles in the broadest sense looking at zero tolerance policing at one extreme and softer approaches to policing at the other It is particularly concerned to explore the dilemmas and moral ambiguities inherent in the tensions between different policing approaches Rather than seeking to juxtapose hard and soft policing styles the guiding thread of the book is the notion that policing is both pervasive and insidious Different policing styles whether conducted by the public police service private security or social work agencies are all part of a multi agency corporate crime control industry which provides the essential context for an understanding of these different approaches
