The Civil War Americas Wars:

Wars Within a War Joan Waugh, Gary W. Gallagher, 2009 The twelve essays in Wars within a War explore the internal stresses that posed serious challenges to the viability of the opposing sides in the Civil War as well as some of the ways in which wartime disputes and cultural fissures carried over into American Civil Wars Don H. Doyle, 2017-02-02 American Civil Wars takes readers beyond the battlefields and sectional divides of the U S Civil War to view the conflict from outside the national arena of the United States Contributors position the American conflict squarely in the context of a wider transnational crisis across the Atlantic world marked by a multitude of civil wars European invasions and occupations revolutionary independence movements and slave uprisings all taking place in the tumultuous decade of the 1860s The multiple conflicts described in these essays illustrate how the United States sectional strife was caught up in a larger complex struggle in which nations and empires on both sides of the Atlantic vied for the control of the future These struggles were all part of a vast web connecting not just Washington and Richmond but also Mexico City Havana Santo Domingo and Rio de Janeiro and on the other side of the Atlantic London Paris Madrid and Rome This volume breaks new ground by charting a hemispheric upheaval and expanding Civil War scholarship into the realms of transnational and imperial history American Civil Wars creates new connections between the uprisings and civil wars in and outside of American borders and places the United States within a global context of other nations Contributors Matt D Childs University of South Carolina Anne Eller Yale University Richard Huzzey University of Liverpool Howard Jones University of Alabama Patrick J Kelly University of Texas at San Antonio Rafael de Bivar Marquese University of S o Paulo Erika Pani College of Mexico Hilda Sabato University of Buenos Aires St ve Sainlaude University of Paris IV Sorbonne Christopher Schmidt Nowara Tufts University Jay Sexton University of Oxford
