[electronic Resource] Charlotte M. (Charlotte Mary) Yonge, 2004 The Herd Boy and His Hermit Charlotte M Yonge, 2020-04-10 On a moorland slope where sheep and goats were dispersed among the rocks there lay a young lad on his back in a stout canvas cassock over his leathern coat and stout leathern leggings over wooden shoes Twilight was fast coming on only a gleam of purple light rested on the top of the eastern hills but was gradually fading away though the sky to the westward still preserved a little pale golden light by the help of the descending crescent moon Go away horned moon murmured the boy I want to see my stars come out before Hob comes to call me home and the goats are getting up already Moon moon thou mayst go quicker Thou wilt have longer time to morrow and be higher in the sky as well as bigger and thou mightst let me see my star to night Ah there is one high in the sunset pale and fair but not mine That s the evening star one of the wanderers Is it the same as comes in the morning betimes when we do not have it at night Like that it shines with steady light and twinkles not I would that I knew There there s mine my own star far up only paling while the sun glaring blazes in the sky mine own he that from afar drives the stars in Charles s Wain There they come the good old twinkling team of three and the four of the Wain Old Billy Goat knows them too Up he gets and all in his wake Ha ha ha he calls and the Nannies answer Ay and the sheep are rising up too How white they look in the moonshine Piers deaf as he is waking at their music Ba they call the lambs Nay that s no call of sheep or goat Tis some child crying all astray Ha Hilloa where beest thou

The Herd Boy and His Hermit Charlotte Mary Yonge,2013-06-07 The cry came from the further side where a mountain stream had force enough to struggle through the swamp There were stepping stones across the brook which the boy knew and he made his way from one to the other calling out cheerily to the little figure that he began to discern in the fading light and who answered him with tones evidently girlish O come come shepherd Here I am I am lost and lorn They will reward thee Oh come fast All in good time lassie Haste is no good here I must look to my footing Presently he was by the side of the wanderer and could see that it was a maiden of ten or twelve years old who somehow even in the darkness had not the air of one of the few inhabitants of that wild mountain district Lost art thou maiden he said as he stood beside her where is thine home I am at Greystone Priory replied the girl I went out hawking to day with the Mother Prioress and the rest My pony fell with me when we were riding after a heron No one saw me or heard me and my pony galloped home I saw none of them and I have been wandering miles and miles Oh take me back good lad the Mother Prioress will give thee Tis too far to take thee back to night he said Thou must come with me to Hob Hogward where Doll will give thee supper and bed and we will have thee home in the morning I never lay in a hogward s house she said primly Belike but there be worse spots to be harboured in Here I must carry thee over the burn it gets wider below Nay tis no use trying to leap it in the dark thou wouldst only sink in There
