The Papers of General Nathanael Greene Nathanael Greene, 1976 Papers of General Nathanael Greene Volume XIII 22 May 1783 13 June 1786 with Additions to the Series Washington Paul Vickery, 2023-12-19 His name is carved in granite his likeness cast in bronze his legend as large as the role he played as America's first president But before he was a commander in chief George Washington was a general in a revolution that would decide the future of the people and land he called his own If victorious he would gain immortality If defeated he would find his neck in a hangman's noose Washington knew the sting of defeat at Brandywine at Germantown yet this unwavering leadership and his vision for a new and independent nation emboldened an army prepared to fight barefoot if necessary to win that independence Wrote an officer after the Battle of Princeton I saw him brave all the dangers of the field and his important life hanging as it were by a single hair with a thousand deaths flying around him Among America's pantheon of Founding Fathers one man to this day stands out Author Paul Vickery tracks the unlikely rise of Washington a man whose stature in command of a young army became prelude to a presidency As Vickery writes He learned to become the father of our country by first being the father of our military African American Life in the Georgia Lowcountry Philip Morgan, 2011-11-01 The lush landscape and subtropical climate of the Georgia coast only enhance the air of mystery enveloping some of its inhabitants people who owe in some ways as much to Africa as to America As the ten previously unpublished essays in this volume examine various aspects of Georgia

lowcountry life they often engage a central dilemma the region's physical and cultural remoteness helps to preserve the venerable ways of its black inhabitants but it can also marginalize the vital place of lowcountry blacks in the Atlantic World The essays which range in coverage from the founding of the Georgia colony in the early 1700s through the present era explore a range of topics all within the larger context of the Atlantic world Included are essays on the double edged freedom that the American Revolution made possible to black women the lowcountry as site of the largest gathering of African Muslims in early North America and the coexisting worlds of Christianity and conjuring in coastal Georgia and the links with variations to African practices A number of fascinating memorable characters emerge among them the defiant Mustapha Shaw who felt entitled to land on Ossabaw Island and resisted its seizure by whites only to become embroiled in struggles with other blacks Betty the slave woman who in the spirit of the American Revolution presented a list of grievances to her master and S Quash the Arabic speaking Muslim who arrived on one of the last legal transatlantic slavers and became a head man on a North Carolina plantation Published in association with the Georgia Humanities Council Grand Theft History Ilario Pantano, 2015-10-06 The explosive truth about America's Revolution a bloody civil war that was won largely in the South that modern liberals have kept buried until now At the darkest hour of the American Revolution in 1780 when there was little reason to hope the British went down South and overplayed their hand By burning the bibles of backwoodsmen and threatening their honor the British ignited a firestorm in the most spectacular unusual and decisive battle of the war Ordinary folk from throughout the Southern colonies spontaneously banded together and rode for hundreds of miles to attack and destroy British forces at King's Mountain The killing didn't stop at King's Mountain but the war did Never heard of the massacre that saved the American Revolution No idea that liberty was actually won in the South Red state values of God guns and guts are being dismantled by leftists airbrushing our past in order to transform our future Grand Theft History features shocking new evidence that exposes the latest battlefield in the culture wars American history The North Carolina Historical Review, 2008 The Journal of Military History, 2007 The Journal of Southern History Wendell Holmes Stephenson, 2005 Includes section Book reviews Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, L.
