The Passion Stone:

Touching the Passion — Seeing Late Medieval Altarpieces through the Eyes of Faith Donna L. Sadler, 2018-03-06
In Touching the Passion Seeing Late Medieval Altarpieces through the Eyes of Faith Donna Sadler explores the manner in which worshippers responded to the carved and polychromed retables adorning the altars of their parish churches Framed by the symbolic death of Christ re enacted during the Mass the historical account of the Passion on the retable situated Christ's suffering and triumph over death in the present The dramatic gestures contemporary garb and wealth of anecdotal detail on the altarpiece invited the viewer's absorption in the narrative As in the Imitatio Christi the worshiper imaginatively projected himself into the story like a child before a dollhouse The five senses the sculptural medium the small scale and the rhetoric of memory foster this immersion

The Story of Stone Jing Wang, 1992
In this pathbreaking study of three of the most familiar texts in the Chinese tradition all concerning stones endowed with magical properties Jing Wang develops a monumental reconstruction of ancient Chinese stone lore Wang's thorough and systematic comparison of these classic works illuminates the various tellings of the stone story and provides new insight into major topics in traditional Chinese literature Bringing together Chinese myth religion folklore art and literature this book is the first in any language to amass the sources of stone myth and stone lore in Chinese culture Uniting classical Chinese studies with contemporary Western theoretical concerns Wang examines these stone narratives by analyzing intertextuality within Chinese traditions She offers revelatory interpretations to long standing critical issues such as the paradoxical character of the monkey in The Journey to the West the circularity of narrative logic in The Dream of the Red Chamber and the structural necessity of the stone tablet in Water Margin By both challenging and incorporating traditional sinological scholarship Wang's The Story of Stone reveals the ideological ramifications of these three literary works on Chinese cultural history and makes the past relevant to contemporary intellectual discourse Specialists in Chinese literature and culture comparative literature literary theory and religious studies will find much of interest in this outstanding work which is sure to become a standard reference on the subject

From the Passion to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre Jordan J. Ryan,2021-01-14 Since the early 4th century Christian pilgrims and visitors to Judea and Galilee have worshipped at and been inspired by monumental churches erected at sites traditionally connected with the life and ministry of Jesus of Nazareth This book examines the history and archaeology of early Christian holy sites and traditions connected with specific places in order to understand them as interpretations of Jesus and to explore them as instantiations of memories of him Ryan s overarching aim is to construe these places as instantiations of what historian Pierre Nora has called lieux de m moires sites where memory crystallizes and where possible to track the course and development of the traditions underlying them from their genesis in the Gospel narratives to their eventual solidification in the form of pilgrimage sites So doing will bring rarely considered evidence to the study of early Christian memory which in turn helps to illuminate the person of Jesus himself in both history and reception

Holy Week. The Passion. The Resurrection ,1899 The Passion of Love in the Summa Theologiae of Thomas Aquinas Daniel Joseph Gordon,2023-05-19 This book is an introduction to three questions on love according to St Thomas Aquinas Summa Theologiae I II qq 26 28 These three questions reflect on the nature of love q 26 the causes of love q 27 and the effects of love q 28 It is thus an introduction to the entire phenomenon of love both as a bodily passion and an act of the will The purpose is to present the Thomistic and broadly scholastic account of human and divine love from a philosophical and theological perspective It aims to be a theological and philosophical study of the topic useful both for a graduate professional audience as part of an undergraduate or graduate course and perhaps for the educated reader The thesis of the book is that contrary to contemporary conceptions not all loves are created equal Some loves perfect us and some loves corrupt us The worth of a love depends on its object and end St Thomas thus presents an objective and teleological account of human and divine love that is of philosophical and theological interest The method is broadly exegetical presenting a careful reading of the text and supplying the philosophical and theological background which the text of Aquinas assumes The scope of the work is limited to three questions ST I II qq 26 28 References to interpretative disputes of Aquinas and references to further resources in the secondary literature will be mostly limited to the footnotes making the body of the text accessible to more readers

The Passion of Artemisia Susan Vreeland, 2002-12-31 Susan Vreeland set a high standard with Girl in Hyacinth Blue. The Passion of Artemisia is even better. Vreeland's unsentimental prose turns the factual Artemisia into a fictional heroine you won't soon forget. People: A true-to-life novel of one of the few female post-Renaissance painters to achieve fame during her own era against great struggle. Artemisia Gentileschi led a remarkably modern life. Vreeland tells Artemisia's captivating story beginning with her public humiliation in a rape trial at the age of eighteen and continuing through her father's betrayal, her marriage of convenience, motherhood, and growing fame as an artist. Set against the glorious backdrops of Rome, Florence, Genoa, and Naples, inhabited by historical characters such as Galileo and Cosimo de' Medici II and filled with rich details about life as a seventeenth-century painter, Vreeland creates an inspiring story about one woman's lifelong struggle to reconcile career and family, passion and genius.

Scenes from the Passion Lynn Aguiar, 2009-10-21 The book Scenes from the Passion comprises 10 major staged scenes. Starting from the first scene, The Agony in the Garden, through the tenth scene, The Resurrection, the writer boldly and vividly displays the heart-rending physical sufferings of Jesus Christ, who has been known through the centuries as The Man of Sorrows. The scenes portraying the Triple Denial of Peter, the Scourging at the Pillar, Trial before Pilate, Crucifixion, take the audience into the microscopic details of the brutal, innocent, and dehumanized sufferings of Jesus Christ. The Resurrection scene, however, suddenly turns the sorrowful tears of the audience into tears of immense and unending joy.
