The Passionate Observer Keith F. Davis, Carl Van Vechten, 1993 And glance Van Vechten's style combines his own interpretive ideas with a deep empathy for the humanity of his sitters Through his eyes we gain fresh insights into the personal and cultural vitality of an increasingly distant age The Passionate Observer Carl Van Vechten, 1993 The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America A Staggering Revolution John Raeburn, 2006-05-23 Sumario The rebirth of photography in the thirties Disestablishing Stieglitz Group of 64 and the problem of California photography An eastern beachhead Edward Steichen and celebrity photography MoMA's big top show Camera periodicals and the popular audience Culture morphology in Berenice Abbott's New York Farm Security Administration photography and the dilemmas of art Farm Security Administration photography in the aura of art The nation's newsstands The photo league Lewis Hine and the Harlem document Seeing California with Edward Weston Photography at high tide The Life and Photography of Doris Ulmann Philip Walker Jacobs, 2021-10-21 Doris Ulmann 1882 1934 was one of the foremost photographers of the twentieth century yet until now there has never been a biography of this fascinating gifted artist Born into a New York Jewish family with a tradition of service Ulmann sought to portray and document individuals from various groups that she feared would vanish from American life In the last eighteen years of her life Ulmann created over 10 000 photographs and illustrated five books including Roll Jordan Roll and Handicrafts of the Southern Highlands Inspired by the paintings of the European old masters and by the photographs of Hill and Adamson and Clarence White Ulmann produced unique and substantial portrait studies Working in her Park Avenue studio and traveling throughout the east coast Appalachia and the deep South she carefully studied and photographed the faces of urban intellectuals as well as rural peoples Her subjects included Albert Einstein Robert Frost African American basket weavers from South Carolina and Kentucky mountain musicians Relying on newly discovered letters documents and photographs many published here for the first time Philip Jacobs's richly illustrated biography secures Ulmann's rightful place in the history of American photography Photo-Attractions Ajay Sinha, 2022-11-11 In Spring 1938 an Indian dancer named Ram Gopal and an American writer photographer named Carl Van Vechten came together for a photoshoot in New York City Ram Gopal was a pioneer of classical Indian dance and Van Vechten was reputed as a prominent white patron of the African American movement called the Harlem Renaissance Photo Attractions describes the interpersonal desires and expectations of the two men that took shape when the dancer took pose in exotic costumes in front of Van Vechten's Leica camera The spectacular images provide a rare and compelling record of an underrepresented history of transcultural exchanges during the interwar years of early 20th century made briefly visible through photography Art historian Ajay Sinha uses these hitherto unpublished photographs and archival research to raise provocative and important questions about photographic technology colonial histories race sexuality and transcultural desires Challenging the assumption that Gopal was merely objectified by Van Vechten's Orientalist gaze he explores the ways in which the Indian dancer co-authored the photos In Sinha's reading Van Vechten's New York studio becomes a promiscuous contact zone between world cultures where a photo-erotic triangle is formed between the American photographer Indian dancer and German camera A groundbreaking study of global modernity Photo Attractions brings scholarship on American photography literature race and sexual economies into conversation with work on South Asian visual culture dance and gender In these remarkable historical documents it locates the pleasure taken in cultural difference that still resonates today

McGinley, 2014-09-10 Singing was just one element of blues performance in the early twentieth century Ma Rainey Bessie Smith and other classic blues singers also tapped joked and flaunted extravagant costumes on tent show and black vaudeville stages The press even described these women as actresses long before they achieved worldwide fame for their musical recordings In Staging the Blues Paige A. McGinley shows that even though folklorists record producers and festival promoters set the theatricality of early blues aside in favor of notions of authenticity it remained creatively vibrant throughout the twentieth century Highlighting performances by Rainey Smith Lead Belly Sister Rosetta Tharpe Sonny Terry and Brownie McGhee in small Mississippi towns Harlem theaters and the industrial British North this pioneering study foregrounds virtuoso blues artists who used the conventions of the theater including dance comedy and costume to stage black mobility to challenge narratives of racial authenticity and to fight for racial and economic justice
