what is expected of you but also what you can expect in return Example I accept fiduciary responsibility for the organization and will oversee its financial health and integrity By the same token I expect timely accurate and complete financial statements to be distributed at least quarterly one week in advance of the relevant board meeting In other words the board knows what to expect the staff knows what to do Each is accountable Simple right So why does the 10 item sample agreement Robinson provides seem so revolutionary Perhaps because so few people have tried an agreement like this Then there s what the author calls the Fundraising Menu Here board members are asked to generate a list of all the ways direct and indirect they could assist in fundraising The list is prioritized and then used to help each trustee prepare a personalized fundraising agreement that meets his or her specific needs interests and limitations Again simple but it s the closest thing you ll find to guaranteeing a board s commitment to raising money Toward the end of his book in a number of How to Fix It chapters Robinson homes in on specific problems such as poorly attended meetings spotty follow through on commitments inactive board members narrow consensus conflicts of interest weak agendas and much more And Robinson doesn t offer up easy nostrums Quite the opposite Over the past 20 years as a board member a volunteer and a consultant he s put into practice what he preaches and stands unshakably behind his fog burning advice Great Boards for Small Groups contains 31 brief chapters In fact the whole book can be read in an hour Funny thing though its impact on those who heed its advice will last for years Boards That Excel B. Joseph White,2014-08-18 This is a different kind of corporate governance book With its vivid stories and conversational tone Boards That Excel is like sitting down with an astute and experienced friend one who s passionate about what corporate and nonprofit boards can contribute to their organizations success when they set high aspirations are clear on purpose and do the right things in the right way B Joseph White an experienced corporate and nonprofit director and a distinguished academic argues that boards can enable organizations to do great things but only when directors go well beyond their duty to oversee and monitor management White offers a road map for governance success based on his experience with two of America s most successful companies one public and one private He knows governance research and distills it to a handful of truly useful insights for boards and directors He provides clear guidance on the essential work boards must do and drawing on behavioral research he describes how they can ensure the boardroom is a place of good information thoughtful evaluation and wise decision making The book reports on interviews with more than a dozen high performance board chairs CEOs and directors including Siebel Systems founder Tom Siebel legendary real estate investor Sam Zell former Harlem Globetrotters owner Mannie Jackson GM board chairman and former Cummins chairman and CEO Tim Solso and volunteer University of Illinois University of Michigan and corporate Hershey Bob Evans director Mary Kay Haben All speak with unusual candor on what it takes for boards and directors to excel Taste of Home Boards, Platters & More Taste of Home,2022-09-27 Today s hosts are flexing their creative muscles to serve all sorts of impressive charcuterie boards cheese trays snack platters cookie platters and more and this delightful book is here to help
