From Where We Stand Deborah Tall,2016-05-05 Why does a particular landscape move us What is it that attaches us to a particular place Tall's From Where We Stand is an eloquent exploration of the connections we have with places and the loss to us if there are no such connections. A typically rootless child of several American suburbs, Tall set out to make a true home for herself in the landscape that circumstance had brought her: the Finger Lakes region of upstate New York. In a mosaic of personal anecdotes, historical sketches, and lyrical meditations, she interweaves her own story with the story of this place and its people, from the Seneca Nation of the Iroquois to European settlers to the many utopians who sensed and were inspired by a spiritual resonance here. This edition includes an introduction by William Kittredge and a foreword by Stephen Kuusisto, both highlighting the book's significance and Tall's exquisite skill in tracing the relationship between homelands and storytelling.

The Literature of the United States of America Marshall Walker, 1988-09-15 American literature over the last four hundred years has developed distinctive qualities and traditions partly engendered by the land itself. The rich variety of literature flourished as the land was colonised and cultivated. In this new edition, Marshall Walker has updated his wide-ranging study of American literature by giving greater attention to poets from Hart Crane and e. e. Cummings to John Ashbery and A. R. Ammons, and to novelists from William Burroughs and Kurt Vonnegut to John Irving. More space is given to drama from the later works of Tennessee Williams and Arthur Miller to the plays of Sam Shepard and David Mamet. The special concerns of Black, Jewish, and Women writers are explored, as this book demonstrates that American literary history can no longer be considered largely in terms of regional dominances.
