An exploration of radical megaprojects in the Ecuadorian Amazon considering the fate of utopian fantasies under conditions of global capitalism From 2007 to 2017 the Citizens Revolution launched an ambitious series of post neoliberal megaprojects in the remote Amazonian region of Ecuador including an interoceanic transport corridor a world leading biotechnology university and a planned network of two hundred Millennium Cities The aim was to liberate the nation from its ecologically catastrophic dependence on Amazonian oil reserves while transforming its jungle region from a wild neoliberal frontier into a brave new world of twenty first century socialism This book documents the heroic scale of this endeavor the surreal extent of its failure and the paradoxical process through which it ended up reinforcing the economic model that it had been designed to overcome It explores the phantasmatic and absurd dimensions of the transformation of social reality under conditions of global capitalism deconstructing the utopian fantasies of the state and drawing attention to the eruption of insurgent utopias staged by those with nothing left to lose Dreams After Sunset Francis Saltus Saltus, 1892 Dreams in Exile George E. McCarthy, 2009-03-09 The classical origins of nineteenth century social theory are illuminated in this sequel to the award winning Classical Horizons The Origins of Sociology in Ancient Greece George E McCarthy stresses the importance of Aristotle and Kant in the creation of a new type of social science in the nineteenth century that represented a critical reaction to Enlightenment rationality and modern liberalism The seminal social theorists Marx Durkheim and Weber integrated Aristotle's theory of moral economy and practical wisdom phronesis with Kant's theory of knowledge and moral autonomy. The resulting social theories uniquely supported by a view of practical science that wove together science and ethics proved instrumental to the development of modern sociology and anthropology.

The Interpretation of Dreams

Artemidorus, 2020-01-16. Dreams are products of the mind and do not come from any external source. Artemidorus, The Interpretation of Dreams. Oneirocritica is the richest and most vivid pre-Freudian account of dream interpretation and the only dream book to have survived complete from Graeco-Roman times. Written in Greek around AD 200 when dreams were believed by many to offer insight into future events, the work is a compendium of interpretations of dreams on a wide range of subjects relating to the natural human and divine worlds. It includes the meanings of dreams about the body, sex, eating and drinking, dress, the weather, animals, the gods, and much else. Artemidorus' technique of dream interpretation stresses the need to know the background of the dreamer, such as occupation, health status, habits, and age, and the work is a fascinating social history revealing much about ancient life, culture, and beliefs, and attitudes to the dominant power of Imperial Rome. Martin Hammond's fine translation is accompanied by a lucid introduction and explanatory notes by Peter Thonemann, which assist the reader in understanding this important work, which was an influence on both Sigmund Freud and Michel Foucault.

An Ancient Dream Manual. Peter Thonemann, 2020-01-16. Artemidorus, Oneirocritica. The Interpretation of Dreams is the only dream book which has been preserved from Graeco-Roman antiquity. Composed around AD 200, it comprises a treatise and manual on dreams, their classification, and the various analytical tools which should be applied to their interpretation, making Artemidorus both one of the earliest documented and arguably the single most important predecessor and precursor of Freud. Artemidorus travelled widely through Greece, Asia, and Italy to collect people's dreams and record their outcomes, in the process casting a vivid light on social mores and religious beliefs in the Severan age. This volume, published as a companion to the new translation of The Interpretation of Dreams by Martin Hammond in the Oxford World's Classics series, aims to provide the non-specialist reader with a readable and engaging road map to this vast and complex text. It offers a detailed analysis of Artemidorus' theory of dreams and the social function of ancient dream interpretation, while also aiming to foster an understanding of the ways in which Artemidorus might be of interest to the cultural or social historian of the Graeco-Roman world. Alongside chapters on Artemidorus' life, career, and world view, it also provides valuable insights into his conceptions of the human body, sexuality, the natural world, and the gods, his attitudes towards Rome, the contemporary Greek polis, and the social order, and his knowledge of Greek literature, myth, and history. In addition, its accessible exploration of the differences and similarities between ancient traditions of dream analysis and modern psychoanalytic approaches will make this volume of interest to anybody with an interest in the history of dreams and dream interpretation.

Where Dreams May Come (2 vol. set). Gil Renberg, 2017-06-01. Where Dreams May Come was the winner of the 2018 Charles J. Goodwin Award of Merit awarded by the Society for Classical Studies. In this book, Gil H. Renberg examines the ancient religious phenomenon of incubation the ritual of sleeping at a divinity's sanctuary in order to obtain a prophetic or therapeutic dream. Most prominently associated with the Panhellenic healing god Asklepios, incubation was also practiced at the cult sites of numerous other divinities throughout the Greek world, but it is first known from ancient Near Eastern sources and was established in Pharaonic Egypt by the time of the Macedonian conquest. Later Christian worship came to include similar practices. Renberg's exhaustive study represents the first attempt to collect and analyze the evidence for incubation from Sumerian to Byzantine and Merovingian times, thus making an important contribution to religious history. This set consists of two books.

The Camera I Robert A. Sobieszek, Deborah Irmas, 1994. Here brought together for the first time are great self-portraits of the masters of photography from the 1850s to the present, including Andre Kertesz, Nadar, Cecil Beaton, Edward Weston, Irving Penn, Duane Michals, and Cindy Sherman.
