The Pattern Of The Chinese Past A Social And Economic Interpretation:

The Pattern of the Chinese Past Mark Elvin, 1973 A satisfactory comprehensive history of the social and economic development of pre modern China the largest country in the world in terms of population and with a documentary record covering three millennia is still far from possible The present work is only an attempt to disengage the major themes that seem to be of relevance to our understanding of China today In particular this volume studies three questions Why did the Chinese Empire stay together when the Roman Empire and every other empire of antiquity of the middle ages ultimately collapsed What were the causes of the medieval revolution which made the Chinese economy after about 1100 the most advanced in the world And why did China after about 1350 fail to maintain her earlier pace of technological advance while still in many respects advancing economically The three sections of the book deal with these problems in turn but the division of a subject matter is to some extent only one of convenience These topics are so interrelated that in the last analysis none of them can be considered in isolation from the others

The Pattern of the Chinese Past Mark Elvin, 1973 The Pattern of the Chinese Past: a Social and Economic Interpretation Mark Elvin, 1976 The Social Impacts of Climate Change in China over the Past 2000 Years Xiuqi Fang, Yun Su, Jingyun Zheng, Lingbo Xiao, Zhudeng Wei, Jun Yin, 2024-03-25 This book aims to illustrate how climate change had impacted the socio economic development in the history of China under the framework of food security The 10 years resolution sequences indexing the status of social and economic subsystems in China over the past 2000 years are reconstructed Statistical methods are used to reveal the major characters and main process of the impact of historical climate change on China's social economy This book serves as a reference both for researchers graduates and undergraduates majoring in geography climatology history and other related fields

Non-Western Global Theories of International Relations Samantha Cooke, 2022-01-28 This book seeks to reposition international relations IR theory by providing insights into non Western concepts and theories By engaging with understandings of power identity the state and the individual from a range of states outside of the Western hemisphere the contributors to this book introduce new methods for understanding aspects of IR in context considerate ways Engagements with Western theories and cases highlight how we need to reposition traditional understandings to allow non Western approaches to IR develop alongside and inform their Western counterparts Moreover the book reinforces the need to move beyond the traditionally used Western centric lenses without removing them completely instead it advocates a harmonisation between them to reduce generalisations across the local state and regional levels

Sentimental Education in Chinese History Paolo Santangelo, 2003-01-01 A pionering inquiry on the role perception and representation of emotional sphere in traditional Chinese culture provides a fascinating contribution on a key anthropological problem in order to understand not only pre modern private history but also contemporary Chinese society The importance of this work goes beyond Chinese studies

The Poet Zheng Zhen (1806-1864) and the Rise of Chinese Modernity Jerry D. Schmidt, 2013-06-20 In The Poet Zheng Zhen 1806 1864 and the Rise of Chinese Modernity J D Schmidt provides the first detailed study in a Western language of one of China s greatest poets and explores the nineteenth century background to Chinese modernity challenging the widely held view that this is largely of Western origin The volume contains a study of Zheng s life and times an examination of his thought and literary theory and four chapters studying his highly original contributions to poetry on the human realm nature verse narrative poetry and the poetry of ideas including his writings on science and technology Over a hundred pages of translations of his verse conclude the work

Comparative Economics in a Transforming World Economy, third edition J. Barkley Rosser, Jr., Marina V. Rosser, 2018-01-26 An approach to comparative economic systems that avoids simple dichotomies to examine a wide variety of institutional and systemic arrangements with updated country case studies Comparative economics with its traditional dichotomies of socialism versus capitalism private versus state and planning versus market is changing This innovative textbook offers a new approach to understanding different economic systems that reflects both recent transformations in the world economy and recent changes in the field This new edition examines a wide variety of institutional and systemic arrangements many of which reflect deep roots in countries cultures and histories The book has been updated and revised throughout with new material in both the historical overview and the country case studies It offers a broad survey of economic systems then looks separately at market capitalism Marxism and socialism and new traditional economies with an emphasis on the role of religions Islam in particular in economic systems It presents case studies of advanced capitalist nations including the United States Japan Sweden and Germany alternative paths in the transition from socialist to market economies taken by such countries as Russia the former Soviet republics Poland China and the two Koreas and developing countries including India Iran South Africa Mexico and Brazil The new chapters on Brazil and South Africa complete the book s coverage of all five BRICS nations the chapter on South Africa extends the book s comparative treatment to another continent The chapter on Brazil with its account of the role of the Amazon rain forest as a great carbon sink expands the coverage of global environmental and sustainability issues Each chapter ends with discussion questions

Prince, Pen, and Sword: Eurasian Perspectives Maaïke van Berckel, Jeroen Duindam, 2018-01-22 Prince Pen and Sword offers a synoptic interpretation of rulers and elites in Eurasia from the fourteenth to the eighteenth century Four core chapters zoom in on the tensions and connections at court on the nexus between rulers and religious authority on the status function and self perceptions of military and administrative elites respectively Two additional concise chapters provide a focused analysis of the construction of specific dynasties the Golden Horde and the Habsburgs and narratives of kingship found in fiction throughout Eurasia The contributors and editors authorities in their fields systematically bring together specialised literature on numerous Eurasian kingdoms and empires This book is a careful and thought provoking experiment in the global comparative and connected history of rulers and elites

The Great Encounter of China and the West, 1500-1800 D. E. Mungello, 2024-09-17 For the Chinese the drive toward growing political and economic power is part of an ongoing effort to restore China's past greatness and remove the lingering memories of history's humiliations. This widely praised book explores the 1500-1800 period before China's decline when the country was viewed as a leading world culture and power. Europe, by contrast, was in the early stages of emerging from provincial to international status while the United States was still an uncharted wilderness. D. E. Mungello argues that this earlier era ironically may contain more relevance for today than the more recent past. Building on the author's decades of research and teaching, this compelling book illustrates the vital importance of history to readers trying to understand China's renewed rise.
