Situating Globalization Views From Egypt:

Situating Globalization Cynthia Nelson, 2000 The range of perspectives and original materials dealt with here highlights the renewed urgency of the struggle for cultural autonomy and voice within the context of globalization Each author explores how the various processes at both the local and global levels intersect to create new discourses and debates around the indigenization of knowledge If a new wind of cultural decolonization is blowing through the Arab Middle East and is having profound impact on the lives of men and women then we should expect a new scholarship to emerge in order to grasp it This book is a contribution in that direction A key dimension concerns the issue of borders and boundaries These are both real and imaginary i e symbolic and metaphoric hegemonic and counter hegemonic Among these borders are spatial ones that determine individuals and communities everyday location and place in the world these include boundaries of class gender territory and language Each of these separations in turn has embedded in it and rests on constructions of imaginary borders and boundaries The real and imaginary do not exist as two disparate entities but are inextricably linked to each other in a dialectical move that simultaneously enables and disables movement and action Current re visioning of globalization challenges past suppositions Globalization is a new form of an ongoing process that took inception during the heyday of colonialism It might serve as a descriptive term to articulate the current historical period but it remains theoretically problematic and imprecise Situating Globalization picks up on the problematics of power and its dispersal and concentration The bearers of these cultural flows seek legitimacy from their potential constituency by positing their language cultural and religious as local and therefore inherently in opposition to the hegemonic cultural knowledge that has seeped in from outside and led to disempowerment of local peoples and knowledges Bearers make no mention to this Islamist knowledge of the foreignness of this idiom to many within the societies in question Any attempt to contest their positioning and bearers of the indigenous results in charges of either betrayal or brainwashing Cynthia Nelson is professor of anthropology and dean of the School of Humanities and Social Sciences at Sarah Lawrence College She is author of Doria Shafik Egyptian Feminist A Woman Apart Shahnaz Rouse is a member of its sociology faculty Her research interests and publications cover agrarian transformation social movements the state religion and gender identity

Situating Globalization Cynthia Nelson, Shahnaz Rouse, 2015-09-15 The range of perspectives and original materials dealt with by each author highlights the renewed urgency of the struggle for cultural autonomy and voice within the context of globalization In other words each paper explores how the various processes at both the local and global level intersect to create new discourses and debates round the indigenization of knowledge If a new wind of cultural decolonization is blowing through the Arab Middle East which is having profound impact on the lives of men and women then we should expect a new scholarship to emerge in order to grasp and understand it This book is a contribution in that direction

Zemmin,2024-09-12 Since Edward Said s publication of Orientalism in 1978 so called Western social theory and its claim to universal analytical validity has been exposed to severe criticism Scholars from the field of postcolonial studies were most vocal in criticizing the Eurocentric nature of the conceptual apparatus of the social sciences Indeed contemporary social theory almost exclusively refers to the historical experiences of Western Europe and North America Yet what is the alternative to these Eurocentric frameworks Many postcolonial critics use very few non English sources and tend to focus on the deconstruction of European and American theories The chapters of this volume provide a turn of perspective The authors critically reflect upon the concepts of so called Western social theory by engaging with social science literature and social theory in Arabic Questions addressed include What are the concepts themes and historical narratives in contemporary Arabic social theory In which ways do Arab social theorists provide us with alternatives to the conceptual apparatuses employed by so called Western social theory To what extent are Arab and Western social theories entangled with each other Fatima Jinnah M. The I.B. Tauris Handbook of Sociology and the Middle East Fatma Müge Göçek, Gamze Evcimen, 2022-11-17 What we understand by the Middle East has changed over time and across space While scholars agree that the geographical core of the Middle East is the Arabian Peninsula the boundaries are less clear How far back in time should we go to define the Middle East How far south and east should we move on the African continent And how do we deal with the minority religions in the region and those who migrate to the West Across this handbook's 52 chapters the leading sociologists writing on the Middle East share their standpoint on these questions Taking the featured scholars as constitutive of the field the handbook reshapes studies on the region by piecing together our knowledge on the Middle East from their path defining contributions The volume is divided into four parts covering sociologists' perspectives on Social transformations and social conflict from Israel Palestine and the Iranian Revolution to the Arab Uprisings and the Syrian War The region's economic religious and political activities including the impact of the spread of Western modernity the effects of neo liberalism and how Islam shapes the region s life and politics People s everyday practices as they have shaped our understanding of culture consumption gender and sexuality The diasporas from the Middle East in Europe and North America which put the Middle East in dialogue with other regions of the world The global approach and wide ranging topics represent how sociologists enable us to redefine the boundaries and identities of the Middle East today Reading Marie al-Khazen's Photographs Yasmine Nachabe Taan,2020-11-26 The Lebanese photographer Marie al Khazen seized every opportunity to use her camera during the years that she was active between 1920 and 1940 She not only documented her travels around tourist sites in Lebanon but also sought creative experimentation with her camera by staging scenes manipulating shadows and superimposing negatives to produce different effects in her prints Within her photographs bedouins and European friends peasants and landlords men and women comfortably share the same space Her photographs include an intriguing collection portraying her family and friends living their everyday lives in 1920s and 30s Zgharta a village in the north of Lebanon Yasmine Nachabe Taan explores these photographs emphasizing the ways in which notions of gender and class are inscribed within them and revealing how they are charged with symbols of women s emancipation to today s viewers through women s presence as individuals separate from family restrictions of that time Images in which women are depicted smoking cigarettes driving cars riding horses and accompanying men on hunting trips counteract the common ways in which women were portrayed in contemporary Lebanon Red Ties and Residential Schools Alexia Bloch,2004 This thoughtful study should interest anyone concerned with social and political life at the periphery of today s Russian Federation Choice

Claiming and Making Muslim Worlds Jeanine Elif Dağyeli,Claudia Ghrawi,Ulrike Freitag,2021-07-05 To what extent can Islam be localized in an increasingly interconnected world The contributions to this volume investigate different facets of Muslim lives in the context of increasingly dense transregional connections highlighting how the circulation of ideas about Muslimness contributed to the shaping of specific ideas about what constitutes Islam and its role in society and politics Infrastructural changes have prompted the intensification of scholarly and trade networks prompted the circulation of new literary genres or shaped stereotypical images of Muslims This in turn had consequences in widely differing fields such as self representation and governance of Muslims The contributions in this volume explore this issue in geographical contexts ranging from South Asia to Europe and the US Coming from the disciplines of history anthropology religious studies literary studies and political science the authors collectively demonstrate the need to combine a translocal perspective with very specific local and historical constellations The book complicates conventional academic divisions and invites to think in historically specific translocal contexts I won't let them be like me R. Latham Lechowick,2024-03-11 Ezidi people Yazidi Yazidi and their culture suffered greatly at the hands of Daesh before during and after the 2014 Sinjar Shingal Genocide Since the resulting forced migration the Ezidi community as one of the most marginalised societies in the Middle East has
