Social Work Ageing And Society:

Social Work, Ageing and Society C Paul Brearley, 2023-03-31 First published in 1975 Social Work Ageing and Society provides a basic understanding of the needs of older people in society It deals with the role of the old person in society and attitudes to old age as well as the physical emotional and social needs of the ageing individual It shows that material resources and social work skills can make a great deal of difference to the quality of life and health of elderly citizens and is concerned therefore not only with the process of ageing but also with the validity of techniques of social intervention against a background of limited practical resources for the elderly This book will be of interest to social work students and to members of other caring professions

Social Work, Ageing and Society C. Paul Brearley, 2022 First published in 1975 Social Work Ageing and Society provides a basic understanding of the needs of older people in society It deals with the role of the old person in society and attitudes to old age as well as the physical emotional and social needs of the ageing individual It shows that material resources and social work skills can make a great deal of difference to the quality of life and health of elderly citizens and is concerned therefore not only with the process of ageing but also with the validity of techniques of social intervention against a background of limited practical resources for the elderly This book will be of interest to social work students and to members of other caring professions

Social Work With Older People:

Approaches To Person-Centred Practice Hall, Barbara, Scragg, Terry, 2012-03-01 This text fills a gap for an accessible textbook which takes a person centred approach to working with older people by providing readers with a basic knowledge of policy legislation theory and research

Social Work, Social Policy and Older People Robert Johns, 2011-01-04 It is essential for social work students to know about social policy to know why studying social policy is important in the social work degree and to understand how social policy when implemented has a real impact on the everyday life of vulnerable people This book provides plenty of examples of this impact tracing the development of welfare provision for older people right through the twentieth century leading up to an analysis of contemporary developments which students will need to know about in order to practice effectively

Social Work with Adults Martin Brett Davies, 2012-03-20 This best selling book explores the crucial role of social workers in securing a better future for vulnerable and disadvantaged adult service users Tackling the problems most common to this branch of social work it focuses on four major themes personalization mental health substance use and old age Edited by the highly respected Martin Davies and with contributions from some of the leading names in the field Social Work with Adults provides a clear map and guidance to help navigate between the different elements of social work knowledge and practice Whether a student on an undergraduate degree taking a module on working with adults or a qualified professional wanting to ensure they are providing the very best service they can this is essential reading The breadth and depth of coverage makes this text a perfect handbook for students of adult social work

Social Work with Older People Ann McDonald, 2010-03-08 Social Work with Older People provides an authoritative and practical guide to working with older people in a range of settings It addresses the complexities of individual work with older people as well as work with families groups and the wider community and is not afraid to tackle the challenges as well as opportunities of practice in this area The book begins by explaining the demographic changes that have led to a greying of the general population It goes on to discuss the diversity in experiences of ageing across society and the range of issues which confront older people and those who wish to work proactively with them Clear attention is paid to the processes of assessment care planning and review with readers encouraged to reflect on developing good practice through case studies and exercises Although it has a strong practical emphasis the book also stresses the value of theoretical perspectives with insights from fields such as sociology and psychology woven throughout the book Clear links are also made to policy guidelines and organizational standards without losing sight of the deeper often more complex issues that arise when working with older people Social Work with Older People will be essential reading for social work students and practitioners but also for others who are interested in the development of practice with older people as citizens and service users

Social Work Practice with Older People Rory Lynch,2013-11-13 Older people are the biggest service user group for social workers and an increasing proportion of the population In this refreshingly positive and practical textbook Rory Lynch draws on years of practice and teaching experience to show how to achieve best social work practice with older adults He takes a person centred approach which fosters respect by valuing the fact that elderly people have more lived experience than others Exploring the key theoretical approaches and methods of intervention this book helps social workers to identify understand and facilitate their service users wishes for well being and a fulfilling older age Chapters are practice driven containing case studies drawn from a range of care settings reflective questions and exercises Mapping directly onto the key modules on the social work degree this is essential reading for all student social workers especially as they prepare to go on their practice placement It is also valuable reading for qualified social workers Rory Lynch is Lecturer in Social Work at Robert Gordon University

Ageing and the Care of Older People in Europe Richard Hugman,1994-08-23 As the population of all European countries ages rapidly understanding the phenomenon of ageing and social responses to old age has become a vital contemporary issue The diverse ways in which old age is seen across Europe are compared and different forms of care for the needs of older people are examined With the demise of large institutions and increasing demands on families and on domiciliary care the question of inter generational relations is seen as a key element in the future of old age It is argued that much is to be learned from cross national comparisons in developing social responses to old age

Critical Gerontology for Social Workers Sandra Torres,Sarah Donnelly,2023-10-17 This original collection explores how critical gerontology can make sense of old age inequalities to inform and improve social work research policy and practice and empower older people With examples of practice facing research this book engages with key debates on age related human rights and social justice issues The critical and conceptual focus will expand the horizons of those who work with older people addressing the current challenges issues and opportunities that they face      Social Work and Social Development James Midgley, Amy Conley, 2010-05-19 This book shows the relevance of developmental social work to the US and other Western nations contending also that its practice is not confined to community organisation or other macro practice interventions and that developmental ideas can be implemented in mainstream fields such as child welfare mental health aging etc      Community Social Work, Older People and Informal Care David S. Gordon, Sheena C. Donald, 1993 This work describes a comprehensive evaluation of the impact of locally based social workers upon a specific target population older people and their informal care The question of the relationship between the informal and the formal worlds of care lies at the heart of the book      The SAGE Handbook of Aging, Work and Society John Field, Ronald J Burke, Cary L Cooper, 2013-09-19 Aging has emerged as a major and urgent issue for individuals organisations and governments of our time In this well timed and comprehensive handbook key international contributors to the field of study come together to create a definitive map of the subject Framed by an authoritative introductory chapter the SAGE Handbook of Aging Work and Society offers a critical overview of the most significant themes and topics with discussions of current research theoretical controversies and emerging issues divided into sections covering Key Issues and Challenges The Aging Workforce Managing an Aging Workforce Living in an Aging Society Developing Public Policy      Encyclopedia of Canadian Social Work Francis J. Turner, 2005-09-07 Annotation Covers over 500 topics important to Canadian social work Written by a highly diverse group of experts and covering all aspects of the field nation wide      Twenty Years of China's Ageing Society: Achievements, Challenges, and Prospects Peng Du,      Social Policy in an Ageing Society D. Reisman, 2009-01-01 Around half the world's population live in countries where the fertility rate is far below the replacement rate and where life expectancy is increasing dramatically Using Singapore as a case study Social Policy in an Ageing Society explores what might happen in a dynamic and prosperous society when falling births longer life expectancy and rising expectations put disproportionate pressure on scarce resources that have alternative uses David Reisman investigates the challenges facing Singapore where a rapidly rising median age and the growing pressure of the elderly upon medical attention are threatening to disrupt the economic and even the political status quo The dependency of the old upon the young is becoming a financial and an emotional burden Health care is swelling in quantity and price Voluntary and compulsory savings are being used up New demands for pensions and subsidies are challenging the national ideology of family network and self reliance Despite a wealth of prospective problems the author argues that viable solutions can be found Discretionary savings can increase Reverse mortgages can monetise owner occupied property A higher participation rate can give the elderly the opportunity to earn a living for themselves This book concludes that public policy must play its part in facilitating these solutions It must ensure that the old retain their dignity The old should not lie where they fall This comprehensive intelligible and highly original cross disciplinary study will appeal to a wide ranging audience Readers will include academics researchers and students with an interest in health economics the economics of development social policy and administration public policy and the socio economic aspects of medicine      Asian Social Work Ian Shaw, Rosaleen Ow, 2019-08-28 The countries of East and Southeast Asia taken as a whole display a laboratory of social and political conditions with individual countries presenting a variety of political cultural and social characteristics Some with one party state systems others with stable liberal democracies and yet others with more fragile democratic systems As such the region presents a unique opportunity to examine the relationship between diverse national environments and social work education regimes In this book social work educators and theorists from around East and Southeast Asia provide accounts of the social work programs within the higher education systems of their respective countries and compare them to those of their neighbours This is the first book to offer a structured account of how social work and social work education have emerged and finds their present place in the historical economic political urban rural and higher education contexts of Southeast Asia and East Asia Experts from the region assess the extent to which these countries systems possess a collective coherence while examining the diversity among them

Global Mindedness in International Social Work Practice Janet Carter Anand, Chaitali Das, 2019-04-10 International social work is too often used as a bolt on subject which considers others outside the national framework Instead this book encourages readers to embrace the concept of globally minded social work practice This means paying closer attention to globalisation and broader issues of social justice mirroring the kind of changing professional context social workers practice in today Drawing on a Local Global Local framework the authors promote critical reflection and dialogue across diverse contexts of practice They outline why global mindedness is a priority for the future of social work practice before considering how it is defined and applied in practice Examples are drawn from a wide range of contexts including working with children young people adults and communities across different countries      Gerontology Kevin Morgan, 1992-01-01 excellent reading for both undergraduate and post graduate students studying gerontology a collection of articles which adds considerable depth to our current knowledge in what is loosely known as gerontology Australian Journal on Ageing The book manages as the editor claims to examine a range of approaches methodologies and controversies within gerontology I find the book a good exponent of the breadth and strength of British gerontology Ageing and Society Most of the chapters of this thought provoking book deal with different aspects of ageing in the normal population but several have implications for care of people with dementia Journal of Dementia Care In recent years gerontology has both diversified and specialised to meet the complex challenge of an ageing society This book aims specifically to reflect these developments and includes expert contributions from the disciplines of geography economics sociology and social policy psychology and medicine Contributions have been selected not only to highlight topics of particular concern but also to illustrate the development and deployment of pragmatic responses The chapters address important issues in lifestyle health adult education ethnicity pensions policy development residential care and professional training Attention also focuses on debate within gerontology particularly in the areas of community care dementing illness and health economics      Ageing and Social Policy in Australia Allan Borowski, Sol Encel, Elizabeth Ozanne, 1997-11-17 Industrialised countries worldwide have for years been confronting the prospect of a steadily ageing population This book first published in 1997 reflects the breadth of research into gerontology and analyses the major themes and issues in the area of ageing and social policy in both an Australian context and from an international comparative perspective Topics discussed include unemployment education and housing for the aged Added to this is the contemporary influence of multiculturalism and the challenge it poses to policies and programs that must cater for a growing diversity in the ageing population A special focus is given to the situation of women and Aboriginal Australians and the specific structural disadvantages they face This book is essential reading for students and policy makers in sociology social and public policy gerontology and public health      There's No Place Like Home: Place and Care in an Ageing Society Christine Milligan, 2016-02-17 Against a background of debate around global ageing and what this means in terms of the future care need of older people this book addresses key concerns about the nature and site of care and care giving Following a critical review of research into who cares where and how it uses geographical perspectives to present a comprehensive analysis of how the intersection of informal care giving within domestic community and residential care homes can create complex landscapes and organizational spatialities of care Drawing on contemporary case studies largely but not exclusively from the UK the book reviews and develops a theoretical basis for a geographical analysis of the issue of care By relating these theoretical concepts to empirical data and case studies it illustrates how formal and informal care giver responses to the changing landscape of care can act to facilitate or constrain the development of inclusionary models of care
